My Brief History Deckle Edge:

The Publisher, 1907 The New Education, 1896 The Improbable Victoria Woodhull Eden

Collinsworth, 2025-09-02 From the acclaimed author of What the Ermine Saw and Behaving Badly a portrait of Victoria Woodhull a celebrated and maligned 19th century businesswoman and activist and a leader in the fight for women's suffrage and labor reforms In 1894 a remarkably self possessed American woman with no formal education to speak of stood before a British court seeking damages for libel from the trustees of the British Museum It was yet another stop along the unpredictable route that was Victoria Woodhull's life Born dirt poor in an obscure Ohio settlement Woodhull was the daughter of an illiterate mother entranced by the fad of Mesmerism a therapeutic pseudoscience and a swindler father whose cons exploited his two daughters It was through her mother though that Woodhull familiarized herself with the supernatural realm earning a degree of fame as a clairvoyant and her first taste of financial success Woodhull's life would continue to turn on its axis and then turn again Despite a deeply troubled first marriage at the age of fourteen countless attempts by the press to discredit her and a wrongful jail sentence Woodhull thrived through sheer determination and the strength of her bond with her sister Tennie She co founded a successful stock brokerage on Wall Street launched a newspaper and became the first woman to run for president Hers was a rags to riches story that saw her cross paths with Karl Marx Henry Ward Beecher and Frederick Douglass In an era when women's rights were circumscribed and the idea of leaving a marriage was taboo she broke the rules to carve out a path of her own Vividly written and exhaustively researched Collinsworth tells the story of a woman truly ahead of her time a radical visionary who made defying mores a habit and brought to the fore societal and political issues still being addressed today Neither a saint nor a villain Woodhull emerges as an iconic complex woman an entrepreneur lover of freedom and a fiercely loyal family member whose political activism and suffragist legacy will cement her in history The Literary World, 1898 Off the Deckle Edge Neeta Premchand, 1995 On hand paper making in India

The Evangelist, 1896 The History of Living Forever Jake Wolff, 2019-06-11 A chemistry student falls for his teacher and uncovers a centuries old quest for the elixir of life The morning after the death of his first love Conrad Aybinder receives a bequest Sammy Tampari was Conrad's lover He was his teacher And it turns out he was not just a chemist but an alchemist searching for a mythic elixir of life Sammy's death was sudden yet he somehow managed to leave twenty years worth of his notebooks and a storage locker full of expensive sometimes baffling equipment in the hands of his star student The notebooks contain cryptic recipes but no instructions they tell his life story but only hint at what might have caused his death And Sammy's research is littered with his favorite teaching question What's missing As Conrad pieces together the solution he finds he is not the only one to suspect that Sammy succeeded in his quest And if he wants to save his father from a mysterious illness Conrad will have to make some very difficult choices A globe trotting century spanning adventure story Jake Wolff's The History of Living Forever takes us from Maine to Romania to Easter Island and introduces a cast of unforgettable characters drug kingpins Big Pharma flunkies centenarians boy geniuses and even a group of immortalists masquerading as coin collectors It takes us deep into the mysteries of life from first love to first heartbreak from the long pall of grief to the irreconcilable loneliness of depression to the possibility of medical miracles from coming of age to coming out Hilarious haunting heart busting life affirming it asks each of us one of life's essential questions How far would you go for someone you love The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1918 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1911 The Commonplace Book Elizabeth Smither,2013-10-01 I read this on a sandwich board outside a coffee shop I stopped pulled out my notebook and leaned against a shopfront You're nothing but a piece of crockery and a bit of blood Epictetus How sharp and bloodtinglingly lovely on a clear early autumn day The sun sharp on the shop panes clear shadows on the footpaths faces outlined in a way they are not in summer Necks with knotted scarves half coats Last year's shoes dusted and polished I was impervious to the glances I got as I wrote down the words perhaps I was mistaken for a reporter Heaven forbid it should be a poet But that harshness in Epictetus the Stoic how lovely A bit of railway cup a train has run over A bit of blood that has gone brown perhaps from a nosebleed during a high fever I put the notebook back in my purse and walked on rejoicing Elizabeth Smither has always kept her own collection of other people's words quotations extracts poems and penes the found and overheard In The Commonplace Book she shares these witty and wise quotations with us interspersed with incidents and memories from her own writing and life offering a sparkling glimpse into the influences and inspirations of a far from commonplace writer
