My Brothers Keeper Vietnam Paperback:

My Brother's Keeper: Poems of the Vietnam war by Marine Cpl. Rod Padilla Rodwick Padilla, 2014-12-09 All war is horrific and life altering Most of those who do the fighting are unable to speak about it openly But the act of sharing their experience with others can be life affirming These are the raw war poems of Vietnam veteran Marine Cpl Rod Padilla They are a spontaneous outpouring of his battlefield experience years after the event The voice is authentic The poems are unedited It is hoped that the publication of this book may help alleviate the suffering of others A sense of the emotional depth and immediacy of the poems is best illustrated by this wall rubbing of the name of Rod Padilla s fallen brother from the Vietnam veteran s war memorial Rod Padilla lives in Montara California with his wife and family He recently retired from a long career in youth education and now spends much of his time in veteran affairs and community service His hobby is rebuilding vintage muscle cars

The Apology the United States Owes the Vietnam Veterans Raymond C. Christian, 2019-07-16 The hottest war zone this country has ever been in was being fought by eighteen and nineteen year boys you can call them men if you want Since I was once a soldier and later an officer I must point out the facts of being a teenager and being a man Most of them enlisted and many were drafted to go fight the war in Vietnam While the United States of America was being defended planes began to return to the states loaded down with the bodies of these young eighteen and nineteen year old soldiers in body bags If you are not knowledgeable about the Institute of Medicine IOM You would think it is the Veterans Administration VA fault why the Vietnam Veterans have not gotten their benefits I would advise you to continue reading Then I want you to ask the question why nongovernmental researchers are being hired to do the research on Agent Orange I also want you to know the Institute of Medicine IOM is no longer under the same name They have the same function but a new name called the Health Medicine Division which is also nongovernmental As concerned citizens we must ask the question of why nongovernmental agencies are being allowed to research Agent Orange I am certain the results will not shock you as to why the VA is not able to advance the Vietnam Veterans benefits because they are receiving their reports from the HMD stating there is no correlation with Agent Orange to the sickness the Vietnam Veterans have The VA gets these reports every two years Another well kept secret is the number of agents used in Vietnam While many of you think there was just Agent Orange My research shows it was a total of six different agents used

Our Brother's Keeper Jedwin Smith, 2005-03-16 Few Vietnam books treat the effects of a U S soldier's death on his family This muscularly written starkly honest memoir fills a significant gap Smith Fatal Treasure an Atlanta Journal Constitution editor was 22 years old the oldest of six children when his beloved younger brother Jeff was killed by a Vietcong rocket during a firefight near the village of Mai Xa Thi on March 7 1968 Jeff's death tore the fragile family apart their mother retreated into severe alcoholism and an all encompassing fixation on Jeff who had been her favorite their emotionally distant father a WWII Marine beset by postwar demons left the family for another woman Smith's other brothers and sisters suffered severe and lasting psychological problems and Smith himself while outwardly coping well by marrying having children and working his way up the journalism ladder became an emotional cripple bent on self destruction Not only did I thoroughly embrace alcohol but I also became kind of psychotic Smith tells his story with bluntness and conviction including what becomes a cathartic happy ending when he and two of his brother's fellow Marines make a journey to Vietnam in 2001 to visit the spot where Jeff died Publ
