Christian Meditation Hans Urs von Balthasar, 1989-01-01 When it comes to meditation the decisive question according to Hans Urs von Balthasar is whether God has spoken or whether the Absolute remains the Silence beyond all words Christianity claims God has spoken and spoken fully in his Son the Word made flesh While God remains mysterious he is not utterly unknown or unknowable Von Balthasar insists through Christian meditation we enter with mind and heart into God's self disclosure In Jesus God reveals his own inner depths to us At the same time because Jesus is God made man he also reveals our inner depths to ourselves Christian Meditation is at once a book about what meditation is in light of God's revelation and a book that assists believers to meditate In a treatment that is both fresh and profound von Balthasar describes the central elements of all Christian meditation provides a guide for meditation and then points the way to the union that prayer achieves in the footsteps of Mary within the Church and in and for the world Christian meditation is entirely trinitarian and at the same time entirely human In order to find God no one need reject being human personally or socially but in order to find God all must see the world and themselves in the Holy Spirit as they are in God's sight Hans Urs von Balthasar The Lamp [ed. by T.E. Bradley]. Thomas Earnshaw Bradley, 1852
