Contemporary Authors New Revision Series ,2001-08 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world s most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details The American Spectator ,2000 Indigenist Critical Realism Gracelyn Smallwood,2015-05-15 Indigenist Critical Realism Human Rights and First Australians Wellbeing consists of a defence of what is popularly known as the Human Rights Agenda in Indigenous Affairs in Australia It begins with a consideration of the non well being of Indigenous Australians then unfolding a personal narrative of the author Dr Gracelyn Smallwood s family This narrative is designed not only to position the author in the book but also in its typicality to represent what has happened to so many Indigenous families in Australia The book then moves to a critical engagement with dominant intellectual positions such as those advanced by commentators such as Noel Pearson Peter Sutton Gary Johns and Keith Windschuttle The author argues that intellectuals such as these have to a great extent colonised what passes for common sense in mainstream Australia This common sense straddles the domains of history health and education and Dr Smallwood has chosen to follow her adversaries into all of these areas This critique is anchored by a number of key philosophical concepts developed by the Critical Realist philosopher Roy Bhaskar The book advances and analyses a number of case studies some well known even notorious such as the Hindmarsh Island Affair South Australia and the Northern Territory Intervention others like that of the author s late nephew Lyji Vaggs Qld and Aboriginal Elder May Dunne Qld much less so Representing one of the first attempts to engage at a critical and intellectual level in this debate by an Indigenous activist this book is essential reading for students and scholars interested in Critical Realism and colonialism The Power of Love and Democracy in the Philosophies of Martin Luther King, Jr. and Cornel West Timothy L. Lake,2025-09-18 This book locates an ethic of love as central to the democratic philosophies of Martin Luther King Jr and Cornel West While much has been written about King s moral vision social activism and theology there has been no book length treatment of the implications of his thinking to democratic theory Additionally Cornel West is the leading African American public intellectual of our time but the range of his cultural criticism and academic scholarship obscures his intellectual and social projects This project synthesizes West s vast corpus and places him within the modern African American intellectual tradition he shares with Du Bois King Maulana Karenga the creator of Kwanza and others Deeply grounded in the African American intellectual and philosophical traditions in which King and West are rooted as well as the Western mainstream political philosophical traditions in which they were educated this book offers a penetrating interpretation and comparative analysis of their

thought on the ideals of democracy and of their critiques of American democracy It also reflects on the nature and values of democracy exploring how love is inseparable from justice in a democratic society Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists
