Mediterranean Passages Miriam Cooke, Erdağ M. Göknar, Grant Richard Parker, 2008 Mediterranean Passages Readings from Dido to Derrida Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Readings of the Medieval Orient Liliana

Sikorska, 2021-11-08 Travel narratives and historical works shaped the perception of Muslims and the East in the Victorian and post Victorian periods Analyzing the discourses on Muslims which originated in the European Middle Ages the first part of the book discusses the troubled legacy of the encounters between the East and the West and locates the nineteenth century texts concerning the Saracens and their lands in the liminal space between history and fiction Drawing on the nineteenth century models the second part of the book looks at fictional and non fictional works of the late twentieth and early twenty first century which re established the Oriental obsession stimulating dread and resentment and even more strongly setting the Civilized West against the Barbaric East Here medieval metaphorical enemies of Mankind the World the Flesh and the Devil reappear in different contexts the world of immigration of white women desiring Muslim men and the present day freedom fighters Re-Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean yasser elhariry, Isabelle

Keller-Privat, Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2025-07-15 Re Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean examines the embodied praxis of hospitality whether through the ritual modes of religious history the pages of literature the visual arts dystopian narratives of the future or the realpolitik of shelter and asylum It moves beyond dominant transit tropes of aporetic exchange in the lineage of Jacques Derrida The volume offers a fractal view of Mediterranean studies as inflected by the lived aesthetic and philosophical histories of hospitality This book brings together leading voices ranging from early career to established scholars across the social sciences and the humanities to argue for a distinct focus on the Mediterranean pre conditions and pre histories of hospitality To date there has been no interdisciplinary intervention that takes up hospitality as a starting point to critical thinking about Mediterranean studies as an expansive dynamic and ever evolving discipline Against the inescapable backdrop of necropolitics and catastrophe Re Membering Hospitality in the Mediterranean offers a rich agentive alternative for Mediterranean worldmaking Herbs and Healers from the Ancient Mediterranean through the Medieval

West Anne Van Arsdall, Timothy Graham, 2016-04-22 Herbs and Healers from the Ancient Mediterranean through the Medieval West brings together eleven papers by leading scholars in ancient and medieval medicine and pharmacy Fittingly the volume honors Professor John M Riddle one of today s most respected medieval historians whose career has been devoted to decoding the complexities of early medicine and pharmacy Herbs in the title generally connotes drugs in ancient and medieval times the essays here discuss interesting aspects of the challenges scholars face as they translate and interpret texts in several older languages Some of the healers in the volume are named such as Philotas of Amphisia Gariopontus and Constantine the African many are anonymous and known only from their treatises on drugs and or medicine The volume s scope demonstrates the breadth of current research being undertaken in the field examining both practical medical arts and medical theory from the ancient world into early modern times It also includes a paper about a cutting edge Internet based system for ongoing academic collaboration The essays in this volume reveal insightful research approaches and highlight new discoveries that will be of interest to the international academic community of classicists medievalists and early modernists because of the scarcity of publications objectively evaluating long lived traditions that have their origin in the world of the ancient Mediterranean

Herbs and Healers from the Ancient Mediterranean through the Medieval West Dr Anne Van Arsdall, Professor Timothy Graham, 2012-08-01 Herbs and Healers from the Ancient Mediterranean through the Medieval West brings together eleven papers by leading scholars in ancient and medieval medicine and pharmacy Fittingly the volume honors Professor John M Riddle one of today s most respected medieval historians whose career has been devoted to decoding the complexities of early medicine and pharmacy Herbs in the title generally connotes drugs in ancient and medieval times the essays here discuss interesting aspects of the challenges scholars face as they translate and interpret texts in several older languages Some of the healers in the volume are named such as Philotas of Amphissa Gariopontus and Constantine the African many are anonymous and known only from their treatises on drugs and or medicine The volume s scope demonstrates the breadth of current research being undertaken in the field examining both practical medical arts and medical theory from the ancient world into early modern times It also includes a paper about a cutting edge Internet based system for ongoing academic collaboration The essays in this volume reveal insightful research approaches and highlight new discoveries that will be of interest to the international academic community of classicists medievalists and early modernists because of the scarcity of publications objectively evaluating long lived traditions that have their origin in the world of the ancient Mediterranean

Reconstructing a Maritime Past Matthew Harpster, 2022-12-30 Reconstructing a Maritime Past argues that rather than applying geo ethnic labels to shipwrecks to describe Greek or Roman seafaring a more intriguing alternative emphasizes a maritime culture s valorization of the Mediterranean Sea Doing so creates new questions and research agendas to understand the past human relationship with the sea This study makes this argument in three sections Chapters 1 and 2 contrasting intellectual histories of maritime archaeological interpretive approaches common in Northern Europe and the Mediterranean propose that the former perspective which embodies contemporary and fluid perceptions of culture is a better theoretical framework for future research Chapters 3 5 re interpret the corpus of submerged sites in the Mediterranean Sea with this approach arguing that this dataset does not represent Phoenician Muslim or Byzantine seafaring but the practices of a maritime culture Key to this section is the author s method that utilizes superimposed polygons to model patterns of maritime activity generating centennial results at different scales Having built the models of a maritime culture s valorization of the Mediterranean Sea Chapter 6 contains the first comparisons of these models to other datasets questioning the relevance of textual media to understand maritime activity while finding closer analogues with other archaeological corpora By deconstructing interpretive methods in maritime archaeology offering a new synthesizing interpretive approach that is scalable and decoupled from past perceptions and critically examining the applicability of various media to illuminate the past maritime experience this book will appeal to scholars at various stages of their careers Critically Mediterranean yasser elhariry, Edwige Tamalet Talbayev, 2018-03-06 Traversed by masses of migrants and wracked by environmental and economic change the Mediterranean has come to connote crisis In this context Critically Mediterranean asks how the theories and methodologies of Mediterranean studies may be brought to bear upon the modern and contemporary periods Contributors explore how the Mediterranean informs philosophy phenomenology the poetics of time and space and literary theory Ranging from some of the earliest twentieth century material on the Mediterranean to Edmond Amran El Maleh Christoforos Savva Orhan Pamuk and Etel Adnan the essays ask how modern and contemporary Mediterraneans may be deployed in political cultural artistic and literary practice The critical Mediterranean that emerges is plural and performative a medium through which subjects may negotiate imagined relations with the world around them Vibrant and deeply interdisciplinary Critically Mediterranean offers timely interventions for a sea in crisis

Routledge Handbook on Turkish Literature Didem Havlioğlu, Zeynep Uysal, 2023-04-10 This Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of Turkish literature within both a local and global context Across eight thematic sections a collection of subject experts use close readings of literature materials to provide a critical survey of the main issues and topics within the literature The chapters provide analysis on a wide range of genres and text types including novels poetry religious texts and drama with works studied ranging from the fourteenth century right up to the present day Using such a historic scope allows the volume to be read across cultures and time while simultaneously contextualizing and investigating how modern Turkish literature interacts with world literature and finds its place within it Collectively the authors challenge the national literary historiography by replacing the Ottoman Turkish literature in the Anatolian civilizations with its plurality of cultures They also seek to overcome the institutional and theoretical shortcomings within current study of such works suggesting new approaches and methods for the study of Turkish literature The Routledge Handbook on Turkish Literature marks a new departure in the reading and studying of Turkish literature It will be a vital resource for those studying literature Middle East studies Turkish and Ottoman history social sciences and political science Orhan Pamuk, Secularism and Blasphemy Erdağ M. Göknar, 2013 Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy is the first critical study of all of Pamuk's novels including the early untranslated work In 2005 Orhan Pamuk was charged with insulting Turkishness under Article 301 of the Turkish penal code Eighteen months later he was awarded the Nobel Prize After decades of criticism for wielding a depoliticized pen Pamuk was cast as a dissident through his trial an event that underscored his transformation from national literateur to global author By contextualizing Pamuk's fiction into the Turkish tradition and by defining the literary and political intersections of his work Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy rereads Pamuk's dissidence as a factor of the form of his novels This is not a traditional study of literature but a book that turns to literature to ask larger questions about recent transformations in Turkish history identity modernity and collective memory As a corrective to common misreadings of Pamuk s work in its international reception Orhan Pamuk Secularism and Blasphemy applies various analytical lenses to the politics of the Turkish novel including gender studies cultural translation historiography and Islam The book argues that modern literature that confronts representations of the nation state or devlet with those of Ottoman Islamic and Sufi contexts or din constitute secular blasphemies that redefine the politics of the Turkish novel Concluding with a meditation on conditions of untranslatability in Turkish literature this study provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of Pamuk s novels to date

The Southern Shores of the Mediterranean and its Networks Patricia Lorcín, 2017-10-02 The majority of scholarly conceptions of the Mediterranean focus on the sea s northern shores with its historical epicentres of Spain France or Italy This book seeks to demonstrate the importance of economic political and cultural networks emanating from the Mediterranean s lesser studied southern shores The various chapters emphasize the activities that made connections between the southern shores sub Saharan Africa the lands along its northern shores and beyond to the United States In doing so the book avoids a Eurocentric approach and details the importance of the players and regions of the southern hinterland in the analysis of the Mediterranean space The cultural aspects of the North African countries be they music literature film commerce or political activism continue to transform the public spheres of the countries along the northern shores of the Mediterranean and beyond to the whole of the European continent In its focus on the often overlooked North African shore the work is an innovative contribution to the historiography of the Mediterranean region This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of North African Studies
