 Percy, 2023-05-02 A pastoral satire about homicidal women and men haters being forced into marriage A standard Shakespearean comedy takes a group of youths who are attracted to those who are not interested in them and regroups them by the conclusion into neat pairings of three or four marriages In contrast Fairy Pastoral appears to have been censored because the men in the pairings are wooing their intended partners from the beginning while the women are homicidally opposed to marriage and prove to the men how much they hate them during the plot only for them all to be forced into four marriages that all of them are miserable in by the resolution The setting is the Forest of Elvida inhabited by a kingdom of fairies Events open with a power transfer from Princess Hypsiphyle to Prince Orion over accusations of mismanagement Then the Princess attempts to regain power across the competitive hunt the Court undertakes Political and romantic tensions are repeatedly interrupted with slap stick comedy of Schoolmaster Sir David trying to teach literature while his rear end is showing he is falling asleep and in rare instances when he manages to relate a coherent lecture the students fail to comprehend his meaning This is a satire not only on the miseries that accompany forced marriage but also about the failures of pedagogic institutions and irrational transfers of political power through subterfuge and sexism Ably presented by
