Orthodox Christian Perspectives on War Perry T. Hamalis, Valerie A. Karras, 2017-12-15 Many regions of the world whose histories include war and violent conflict have or once had strong ties to Orthodox Christianity Yet policy makers religious leaders and scholars often neglect Orthodoxy's resources when they reflect on the challenges of war Through essays written by prominent Orthodox scholars in the fields of biblical studies church history Byzantine studies theology patristics political science ethics and biology Orthodox Christian Perspectives on War presents and examines the Orthodox tradition's nuanced and unique insights on the meaning and challenges of war with an eye toward their contemporary relevance This volume is structured in three parts Confronting the Present Day Reality Reengaging Orthodoxy's Tradition and Constructive Directions in Orthodox Theology and Ethics Each exemplifies the value of interdisciplinary reflection on war and the potential for the Eastern Orthodox tradition to enhance ecumenical and interfaith discussions surrounding war in both domestic and international contexts The contributors do not advance a single account of the meaning of war or a comprehensive and normative stance purporting to be the Orthodox Christian teaching on war Instead this collection presents the breadth and depth of Orthodox Christian thought in a way that engages Orthodox and non Orthodox readers alike In addition to offering fresh resources for all people of good will to understand prevent and respond faithfully to war this book will appeal to Christian theologians who specialize in ethics to libraries of academic institutions and to scholars of war peace studies international relations and Orthodox thought Contributors Peter C Bouteneff George Demacopoulos John Fotopoulos Brandon Gallaher Perry T Hamalis Valerie A Karras Alexandros K Kyrou Aristotle Papanikolaou Elizabeth H Prodromou Nicolae Roddy James C Skedros Andrew Walsh and Gayle E Woloschak The Palgrave Handbook of Disciplinary and Regional Approaches to Peace Oliver Richmond, Sandra Pogodda, Jasmin Ramovic, 2016-03-15 In this handbook a diverse range of leading scholars consider the social cultural economic political and developmental underpinnings of peace This handbook is a much needed response to the failures of contemporary peacebuilding missions and narrow disciplinary debates both of which have outlined the need for more interdisciplinary work in International Relations and Peace and Conflict studies Scholars students and policymakers are often disillusioned with universalist and northern dominated approaches and a better understanding of the variations of peace and its building blocks across different regions is required Collectively these chapters promote a more differentiated notion of peace employing comparative analysis to explain how peace is debated and contested Handbook on Gender and War Simona Sharoni, Julia Welland, Linda Steiner, Jennifer Pedersen, 2016-07-27 This interdisciplinary Handbook offers a comprehensive and detailed overview of the relationship between gender and war exploring the conduct of war its impact aftermath and opposition to it Offering sophisticated theoretical insights and empirical research from the First World War to contemporary conflicts around the world this Handbook underscores the centrality of gender to critical examinations of war Expanding Responsibility for

Imperial Pilgrims Shawn A. Aghajan, 2022-03-29 This book is an Augustinian interrogation of contemporary Christian accounts of empire just war and terrorism Though Augustine s voice has guided much of the Christian discourse in these conjoined arenas it has not shielded his work from being misappropriated to serve ends that are inimical to his own The US war on terror is the most recent and egregious example of violence that many theologians have unjustly baptized as Augustinian By reading Augustine pastorally rather than merely polemically this work offers a counter narrative and an alternative praxis for the American Christian trying to reconcile her baptism with her citizenship

Gentry, Laura Sjoberg, 2015-08-15 Beyond Mothers Monsters Whores takes the suggestion in Mothers Monsters Whores that it is important to see genderings in characterizations of violent women and to use critique of those genderings to retheorize individual violence in global politics It begins by demonstrating the interdependence of the personal and international levels of global politics in violent women s lives but then shows that this interdependence is inaccurately depicted in gender subordinating narratives of women s violence Such narratives the authors argue are not only normatively problematic on the surface but also intersect with other identifiers such as race religion and geopolitical location Modern Chinese Theologies Chloë Starr, 2023-06-20 This is the first volume in a series of three exploring modern Chinese theology This volume covers Mainland and Mainstream church theologians of mainland China who were predominantly associated with mainline or missionary established denominations In the post 1949 era of the People s Republic this translates into theologians and theological movements associated with the state authorized church the Chinese Catholic Patriotic Association and the Protestant Three Self Patriotic Movement The volume is broadly chronological with each Part forming a thematic unity Part I covers Republican and Wartime Theologies with seven chapters exploring theologies of resistance ethics and themes of indigenization and Sinicization Part II considers Protestant Denominational Developments in the first half of the twentieth century the complex legacy of mission history in China and the relationship between denominational church belonging and theological development Part III Reform Era Theologies and Methodological Considerations begins in the height of the Maoist era and addresses the changing relationship between Christian and Communist thought in the writings of TSPM theologians the theological use of China s Christian past and the development of Roman Catholic theological education in the twenty first century The sixteen essays of the volume represent a new generation of critical voices from the mainland Hong Kong and North America The volume opens up the critical questions that have galvanized the modern Chinese church who are we as Chinese Christians How can our Christian faith serve the nation What form should an indigenous church take and offers new perspectives for a contemporary audience
