Perception In Architecture Here And Now:

PERCEPTION in Architecture Miriam Mlecek, Claudia Perren, 2015-02-27 Definitions of space are as diverse as the disciplines in which it plays a fundamental role from science and philosophy to art and architecture each field's perception of space is often simplified or reduced This consequently denies access to new spaces whose definitions and perspectives strategies and impacts on human perception are rarely considered in any cohesive manner This is where the Aedes Network Campus Berlin ANCB programme No Space Without Traits came in particularly through artistic approaches it aimed to open doors into spatial worlds that until now have remained closed The symposium PERCEPTION in Architecture HERE and NOW was part of this programme and invited critical and comprehensive contributions by academics artists architects designers and curators These presentations are brought together in this volume to reflect upon new spatial concepts and thus access new spaces of perception in architecture The symposium stimulated a discourse focused on spaces as a collective entity notions of spatial truth the multiplicity of experience and Wahrnehmungsapparate as well as physical visual acoustic and virtual manifestations of space in relation to social cultural historical and political forces The Bloomsbury Companion to the Philosophy of Consciousness Dale Jacquette, 2018-01-25 From Descartes and Cartesian mind body dualism in the 17th century though to 21st century concerns about artificial intelligence programming The Bloomsbury Companion to the Philosophy of Consciousness presents a compelling history and up to date overview of this burgeoning subject area Acknowledging that many of the original concepts of consciousness studies are found in writings of past thinkers it begins with introductory overviews to the thought of Descartes through to Kant covering Brentano's restoration of empiricism to philosophical psychology and the major figures of the late 19th and early 20th centuries Russell Wittgenstein Ryle and James These opening chapters on the forces in the history of consciousness lay the groundwork needed to understand how influential contemporary thinkers in the philosophy of mind interpret the concept of consciousness Featuring leading figures in the field Part II discusses current issues in a range of topics progressing from the so called hard problem of understanding the nature of consciousness to the methodology of invoking the possibility of philosophical zombies and the prospects of reductivism in philosophy of mind Part III is dedicated to new research directions in the philosophy of consciousness including chapters on experiment objections to functionalism and the scope and limits of artificial intelligence Equipped with practical research resources including an annotated bibliography a research guide and a glossary The Bloomsbury Companion to the Philosophy of Consciousness is an authoritative guide for studying the past present and future of consciousness Perception, Design and Ecology of the Built Environment Mainak Ghosh, 2020-01-24 This edited volume is a compilation of the built environment in response to many investigations analyses and sometimes mere observations of the various dialogues and interactions of the built in context to its ecology perception and design The chapters concentrate on various independent issues integrated as a holistic approach both in terms of theoretical perspectives and practical approaches predominantly focusing on the Global South The book builds fabric knitting into the generic understanding of environment perception and design encompassing different attitudes and inspirations This book is an important reference to topics concerning urbanism urban developments and physical growth and highlights new methodologies and practices The book presumes an understanding unearthed from various dimensions and again woven back to a common theme which emerges as the reader reads through Various international experts of the respective fields working on the Global South contributed their latest research and insights to the different parts of the book This trans disciplinary volume appeals to scientists students and professionals in the fields of architecture geography planning environmental sciences and many more

Listen, Here, Now! Inés Katzenstein, 2004 This book explores the intense internationally significant developments in Argentine art of the 1960s through English translations of the original documents of the time Not Architecture But Evidence that it Exists Lauretta Vinciarelli, Brooke Hodge, 1998 Vinciarelli's paintings of light space water and landscape express a soulful mixture of imagination and memory and reflect her devotion to architecture Branding the Middle East Steffen Wippel, 2023-10-04 This edited volume investigates place product and personal branding in the Middle East and North Africa including some studies from adjacent regions and the wider Islamicate world Going beyond simply presenting logos and slogans it critically analyses processes of strategic communication and image building under general conditions of globalisation neoliberalisation and postmodernisation and in a regional perspective of lasting authoritarian rule and increased endeavours for worlding In particular it looks at the multiple actors involved in branding activities their interests and motives and investigates tools channels and forms of branding A major interest exists in the entanglements of different spatial scales and in the inconsistencies of communication measures Attention is paid to reconfigurations of certain images over time and to the positioning of objects of branding in time and space Historical case studies supplement the focus on contemporary branding efforts While branding in the Western world and many emerging economies has been meticulously analysed this edited volume fills an important gap in the research on MENA countries Merleau-Ponty and Modern Politics After Anti-Humanism Diana Coole, 2007-08-28 In this important new book Diana Coole shows how existential phenomenology illuminates and enlivens our understanding of politics Merleau Ponty's focus on embodied experience allows us to approach political life in a manner that is both critical and engaged With breadth of vision and penetrating insight Coole demonstrates that political questions were always central to Merleau Ponty's philosophical project Her examination of his complete body of work presents us with a rigorous philosophy that maintains our capacities for agency despite moving beyond a philosophy of the subject Merleau Ponty and Modern Politics after Anti humanism is the first major work on Merleau Ponty's political philosophy in over two decades Coole presents his later philosophy of flesh as the outline for a new understanding of the political which forms the basis for reconsidering humanism after but also through anti humanism She also shows how Merleau Ponty's concern with contingency anticipated arguments by thinkers such as Derrida Foucault and Deleuze while sustaining a robust sense of politics as the domain of collective life The result is a philosophical analysis that speaks to our contemporary concerns in which we seek a coherent account of our actions our environment and ourselves such that we might become exemplary political actors within a complex and uncertain world Philosophy and Architecture ,2021-11-01

This Here Now: Japanese Building And The Architecture Of The Individual Kevin Nute,2020-11-04 This Here Now explains how traditional Japanese buildings respond to distinctive materials objects and moments and argues that the built acknowledgment of such events can help to affirm the individuality of our own being The book also shows how buildings can help us to overcome our separateness by enabling us to share the normally subjective experiences of this here and now
