Native Arts Of North America Africa And The South Pacific:

Native Arts Of North America, Africa, And The South Pacific George A. Corbin, 2018-05-04 This introduction to the art of tribal peoples of North America Africa and the South Pacific does not briefly cover the hundreds of artistic traditions in these three vast areas but rather studies in depth thirty six art styles within all three areas using the methods of art history including stylistic analysis and iconographic interpretation Emphasis is on the art in cultural context and as a system of visual communication within each tribal area Where appropriate for a more complete understanding of the art data from archaeology ethnology linguistics religion and other humanistic disciplines are included Among the peoples and cultures whose art is studied are the Haida Kwakiutl and Tlingit the Hohokam and Mongollon the Anasazi and Hopi the Dogon and Bamana of Mali the Asante of Ghana the Benin Yoruba and Ibo of Nigeria the Fan the Bamum and the Kuba of Central Africa Australian aboriginal and Island New Guinea art Island Melanesia art central and eastern Polynesia Hawaii and the Maori in Marginal Polynesia The format of the text and selected illustrations is based on seventeen years of teaching African North American Indian and South Pacific art to undergraduate and graduate students at Herbert H Lehman College CUNY New York University and Columbia University The book is intended for art history and anthropology students and the interested lay reader or collector The detailed notes at the end of the book are for further study research and understanding of the tribal art style under discussion Continuum Encyclopedia of Native Art Hope B. Werness, 2003-01-01 This lavishly produced volume is the first reference work to focus on the symbols meaning and significance of art in native or indigenous cultures

The Pacific Islands Moshe Rapaport, 1999 Academic survey of the Pacific Islands Includes maps photographs tables diagrams atlas and detailed index Pacific Art Anita Herle, 2002-01-01 Contributors explore the complex relations among Pacific artists patrons collectors and museums over time as well as the different meanings given to art objects by each

American Anthropology in Micronesia Robert C. Kiste, Mac Marshall, 1999-01-01 American Anthropology in Micronesia An Assessment evaluates how anthropological research in the Trust Territory has affected the Micronesian people the U S colonial administration and the discipline of anthropology itself Contributors analyze the interplay between anthropology and history in particular how American colonialism affected anthropologists use of history and examine the research that has been conducted by American anthropologists in specific topical areas of socio cultural anthropology Although concentrating largely on disciplinary concerns the authors consider the connections between work done in the era of applied anthropology and that completed later when anthropology was pursued mainly for its own sake The focus then returns to applied concerns in more recent years and issues pertaining to the relevance of anthropology for the world of practical affairs It will be of essential interest to students and scholars of Pacific Islands studies and the history of anthropology The Visual Arts Hugh Honour, John Fleming, 2010 Hailed as the most up to date and comprehensive survey published in a single volume this new revised edition is an authoritative and enlightened account of the history of art It presents art history as an essential part of the development of humankind encompassing the arts of Asia Africa Oceania Europe and the Americas spanning from the primitive art of hunters 30 000 years ago to the most controversial art forms of today The text is beautifully and generously illustrated with over 1 400 superb photographs including architectural plans and color maps

Continuum Encyclopedia of Animal Symbolism in World Art Hope B. Werness,2006-01-01 Animals and their symbolism in diverse world cultures and different eras of human history are chronicled in this lovely volume Artistic Heritage in a Changing Pacific Philip J. C. Dark,Roger G. Rose,1993-09-01 The great value of this work is the uniformly high quality of papers and their revelation of contemporary trends in Oceanic art research Ethnoarts A World History of Art Hugh Honour,John Fleming,2005 Over two decades this art historical tour de force has consistently proved the classic introduction to humanity s artistic heritage From our paleolithic past to our digitised present every continent and culture is covered in an articulate and well balanced discussion In this Seventh Edition the text has been revised to embrace developments in archaeology and art historical research while the renowned contemporary art historian Michael Archer has greatly expanded the discussion of the past twenty years providing a new perspective on the latest developments The insight elegance and fluency that the authors bring to their text are complemented by 1458 superb illustrations half of which are now in colour These images together with the numerous maps and architectural plans have been chosen to represent the most significant chronological regional and individual styles of artistic expression Masks and Masking Gary

Edson,2015-07-11 For at least 20 000 years masking has been a mark of cultural evolution and an indication of magical religious sophistication in society This book provides a comprehensive understanding of the mask as a powerful cultural phenomenon a means by which human groupings attempted to communicate their dignity and sense of purpose as well as establish a continuum between the natural and supernatural worlds It addresses the distinctive environments within which masks flourished and analyzes the mask as a manifestation of art ethnology and anthropology
