Ndebele Novels:

Versions of Zimbabwe. New Approaches to Literature and Culture Robert Muponde, Ranka Primorac, 2005-06-15
The book is the result of a collaboration of scholars from southern Africa and overseas whose work emphasises hitherto overshadowed subjects of literature exposing new and untried approaches to Zimbabwean writing The contributors focus on pluralities inclusiveness and the breaking of boundaries and elucidate how literary texts are betraying multiple versions and opinions of Zimbabwe arguing that only a multiplicity of opinions on Zimbabwe can do the complexity of the society and history justice African Oral Literature Russell Kaschula, 2001 Throughout Africa oral literature is flourishing though it is perceived by some as anachronistic to the modern world This work refutes this idea in its entirety by presenting 22 chapters which firmly place the study of oral literature within contemporary African existence The study analyzes how oral literature relates to media music technology text gender religion power politics and globalization The Worlding of the South African Novel Jane Poyner, 2020-08-20 The Worlding of the South African Novel develops from something of a paradox that despite momentous political transition from apartheid to democracy little in South Africa's socio economic reality has actually changed Poyner discusses how the contemporary South African novel engages with this reality In forms of literary experiment the novels open up intellectual spaces shaping or contesting the idea of the new South Africa The mediatizing of truth at the TRC hearings how best to deal with a spectacular yet covert past the shaping for unimagined communities of an inclusive public sphere HIV AIDS as the preeminent site testing capitalist modernity white anxieties about land reform disease as environmental injustice and the fostering of an enabling restorative cultural memory Poyner argues that through these key nodes of intellectual thought the novels speak to recent debates on world literature to register the shock of an uneven modernity produced by a capitalist world economy Routledge Handbook of Minority Discourses in African Literature Tanure Ojaide, Joyce Ashuntantang, 2020-04-29 This handbook provides a critical overview of literature dealing with groups of people or regions that suffer marginalization within Africa The contributors examine a multiplicity of minority discourses expressed in African literature including those who are culturally socially politically religiously economically and sexually marginalized in literary and artistic creations Chapters and sections of the book are structured to identify major areas of minority articulation of their condition and strategies deployed against the repression persecution oppression suppression domination and tyranny of the majority or dominant group Bringing together diverse perspectives to give a holistic representation of the African reality this handbook is an important read for scholars and students of comparative and postcolonial literature and African studies Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. analyse a range of different concepts and questions including language and sociality social and political history multilingual government and educational policies In doing so they present significant original research ensuring that the work will remain a key reference point for the subject This ambitious and wide ranging edited collection will appeal to students and scholars of southern African languages sociolinguistics history and politics

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon

Gikandi,2016-09-05 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others

The Place of Tears Ranka Primorac,2006-06-30

THIS IS AN NJR NOT JACKET BLURB DO NOT USE IT THIS RAW FORM This new and original work is the only recent monographic treatment of the Zimbabwean novel and its political implications An earlier one by Veit Wild 1992 has not been updated and other such as that by Zhuwarara 2001 are not easily available outside Zimbabwe The author resided in Zimbabwe for almost a decade and has visited the country regularly in the last five years She has published extensively on Zimbabwean literature and brings to her work a deep contextual richness as well as theoretical sophistication Thoroughly up to date the book examines all the published novels of the recently deceased Yvonne Vera d April 2005 as well as major novels of five other internationally acclaimed Zimbabwean writers including Tsitsi Dangarembga and Chenjerai Hove It does so against a political backdrop which goes right up to the March 2005 parliamentary elections The book provides a modern and original historical account of post independence Zimbabwean writing and its relationship to history and politics The critical investigation focuses on fictional representations of space time which links the book the tragically topical Zimbabwean issue of land Dr Primorac employs a form of literary and cultural theory reminiscent of Bakhtinian analysis but drawn at length from East European theoretical sources She investigates what the novels have to say about the Zimbabwean condition and makes a sophisticated link between ideas about space time and novelistic ideologies More than that drawing a parallel with the experience of Eastern Europe she shows how the novel itself breaks out of the confines of the quasi Marxist analysis which still holds sway in Zimbabwe As such the Zimbabwean novel is itself a source of hope in that troubled land Ranka Primorac has degrees from the universities of Zagreb Zimbabwe and Nottingham Trent She has taught Africa related courses at several institutions of higher learning in Britain including the University of Cambridge and New York University in London She is interested in non western writing and cultures theoretical approaches to the novel and the narrative production of space time Her co edited volume Versions of Zimbabwe New Approaches to Literature and Culture was published in 2005 by Weaver Press in Harare Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
