Natural Fashion Tribal Decoration From Africa:

Natural Fashion Hans Silvester, 2009-03-24 Over the course of numerous voyages to Africa's Omo Valley Hans Silvester became fascinated by the beauty of the Surma Mursi Hamar and Kurma tribes who share a taste for body painting and extravagant decorations borrowed from nature This collection of photographs captures these accoutrements Hans Silvester, 2010 December 7 2010 January 8 2011 Step into Nature Patrice Vecchione, 2015-03-31 Step outside your door and reconnect with nature From the author of Writing and the Spiritual Life comes a guide that will replenish your connection to the earth and inspire you to develop and strengthen your imagination The natural world has inspired artists seekers and thinkers for millennia but in recent times as the pace of life has sped up its demands have moved us indoors Yet nature's capacity to lead us to important truths to invigorate and restore our imagination and equilibrium is infinite Step into Nature makes nature personal again by stimulating awareness and increasing our understanding of the environment But being in nature doesn't mean flying off to remote faraway places Nature is as close as opening your front door and opening your heart to the sky above the miniature gardens that push their way up between the sidewalk cracks in our cities and the small stream just down the road Patrice Vecchione demonstrates how nature can support and enhance your creative output invigorate your curiosity and restore your sense of connection to and love of the earth Included throughout the book is The Cabinet of Curiosities exercises and suggestions for practical and unexpected ways to stimulate your imagination deepen your relationship with nature and experience the harmony between creativity and the natural world World Clothing and Fashion Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2015-03-17 Taking a global multicultural social and economic perspective this work explores the diverse and colourful history of human attire From prehistoric times to the age of globalization articles cover the evolution of clothing utility style production and commerce including accessories shoes hats gloves handbags and jewellery for men women and children Dress for different climates occupations recreational activities religious observances rites of passages and other human needs and purposes from hunting and warfare to sports and space exploration are examined in depth and detail Fashion and design trends in diverse historical periods regions and countries and social and ethnic groups constitute a major area of coverage as does the evolution of materials from animal fur to textiles to synthetic fabrics and production methods from sewing and weaving to industrial manufacturing and computer aided design Dress as a reflection of social status intellectual and artistic trends economic conditions cultural exchange and modern media marketing are recurring themes Influential figures and institutions in fashion design industry and manufacturing retail sales production technologies and related fields are also covered Africa Toyin Falola, Daniel Jean-Jacques, 2015-12-14 These volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa's nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North

Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading

Art and Architecture of the World's Religions Leslie D.
