marginalized figures within Chewa society including lepers and orphans The book delves into the resistance efforts of the Chewa people particularly in response to colonial pressures while highlighting the role of Catholic missionaries as both spiritual leaders and advocates for social justice They championed the rights of women protested abuses and engaged with some of the most vulnerable members of society However the missionaries efforts were often complicated by their position as representatives of a once powerful but now discredited Church in a Protestant dominated colony Through a blend of historical analysis and ethnographic detail Linden paints a vivid picture of a missionary body torn between triumphalism and marginality caught in the delicate balance of resisting colonial forces while simultaneously seeking acceptance within them This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1974 Leaves from My Journal Wilford Woodruff, 2024-05-15 Reprint of the original first published in 1882 The ^AOxford Guide to ^IThe Book of Common Prayer^R Charles Hefling, Cynthia Shattuck, 2006-07-01 The Book of Common Prayer runs like a golden thread through the history of the Church of England and the worldwide Anglican Communion The Oxford Guide to the Book of Common Prayer is the first comprehensive guide to the history and usage of the original Book of Common Prayer and its numerous descendants throughout the world It shows how a seminal text for Christian worship and devotion has inspired a varied family of religious resources that have had an influence far beyond their use in the churches of a single tradition The Asiatic Journal and Monthly Register for British and Foreign India, China, and Australia ,1817 The Sunday School Journal ,1888 More Than Enough Joel L. Meredith, 2001-01-18 THE DATE January 26 1955 It was my twentieth birthday THE PLACE A train on its way from Salt Lake City Utah to Sacramento California I sat looking out a train window at the scenery speeding by MY THOUGHTS A jumble of emotions I was on my way overseas to Korea to serve a tour of duty with the United States Air Force But first I would stop at McClellan Air Force Base AFB near Sacramento for overseas processing I was bitter about my overseas assignment but I was glad that the Korean armistice had finally been signed At least nobody would be shooting at me and I wouldn t have to kill someone else in the name of war Just a couple of weeks earlier my girl friend had rejected my proposal of marriage I had asked and asked God to give that girl to me for my wife God had said no and I was mad at Him MORE TRAVEL By train to Travis AFB California and an overnight stay by plane to Hickam AFB Hawaii for a short two hour stopover and by plane to Tokyo Japan for three days THE STORY BEGINS The stopover in Tokyo Japan for three days was for special orientation no pun intended In that short time I Sampled Tokyo s night life had sex with a Japanese girl in a back alley and spent the night in a hotel room with a young Japanese prostitute It wasnt my usual style but then I was mad at God I decided to hurt Him the only way I knew how SIN SIN SIN Soon I was in Korea starting my twelve month tour of duty Being in Korea was not my idea of fun but there were certain diversions to take my mind off my misery I drank a bit partied a bit and enjoyed the services of several Korean prostitutes a lot Finally I got tired of partying and settled for shacking up with a Korean girl named Peggy We rented a room in a village not far from the Air Force compound where I was stationed This village hideaway gave me some respite from being on call 24 hours a day In spite of all this I continued my lifelong habit of praying every night before going to sleep Then there came a time that my nightly prayers stopped I couldn't continue to ask God to forgive me for fornication when I had no real intention of stopping let alone marrying Peggy Immersed in guilt I started seriously considering suicide My dislike for service life and the poor living conditions in Korea helped to deepen my depression It seemed as though others also had similar wishes for me when one of my fellow airmen said to me in an angry tone Meredith if I were you I'd kill myself And then a few days later Peggy in reference to some situation said If I was in a fix like that I'd kill myself One morning after spending the night in the village with Peggy the two of us were walking in the rain along the bank of a small river which was swollen and quite swift due to the heavy seasonal rains Normally it would have been a simple matter to cross the river further upstream near the village where Peggy lived but the water there was now about chest deep We were therefore walking downstream to a bridge that crossed the river At that point the highway to Seoul also crossed the river Peggy was going to catch a bus to Seoul and I was headed back to the Air Force compound As we rounded a bend in the river a commotion in the river caught our attention It was an elderly Korean farmer being swept downstream by the raging current He was on his back and unable to right himself because of a heavy wooden plow strapped to his back I quickly emptied my pockets kicked off my rubber Korean shoes and jumped into the water My Boy Scout training was about to pay off I quickly reached the old man pulled him loose from the plow and got him safely to shore Then I rescued his plow The old man was cut and bleeding from the pounding he'd taken from being swept against the large boulders in the river but his wounds did not appear serious enough for emergency first aid
