Preschool Newsletter For May 2013:

Presence of the Cross in Public Spaces Marta Ordon,Piotr Stanisław,Michał Zawiślak,2017-03-07 The judgments of the European Court of Human Rights in the case of Lautsi vs Italy 3 November 2009 and 18 March 2011 served as a catalyst for the debate on the presence of the cross in the public space in a number of European states What are the effects of this debate What is the meaning attributed to so called negative religious freedom viewed in relation to the right to manifest religion and protect tradition and culture Answers to these and related questions are provided in this volume by experienced contributors who adopt diversified research perspectives and viewpoints The analyses presented here concern not only the established democracies of Western Europe but also post communist states Owing to the multifaceted approach thus offered the book will prove to be helpful in distinguishing the implications of respect for the freedom of thought conscience and religion from the consequences of diversified constitutional norms adopted in individual states and also from subjective expectations

Re-Collecting Black Hawk Nicholas Brown,Sarah E. Kanouse,2015-06-04 The name Black Hawk permeates the built environment in the upper Midwestern United States It has been appropriated for everything from fitness clubs to used car dealerships Makataimeshekiakiak the Sauk Indian war leader whose name loosely translates to Black Hawk surrendered in 1832 after hundreds of his fellow tribal members were slaughtered at the Bad Axe Massacre Re Collecting Black Hawk examines the phenomena of this appropriation in the physical landscape and the deeply rooted sentiments it evokes among Native Americans and descendants of European settlers Nearly 170 original photographs are presented and juxtaposed with texts that reveal and complicate the significance of the imagery Contributors include tribal officials scholars activists and others such as George Thurman the principal chief of the Sac and Fox Nation and a direct descendant of Black Hawk These image text encounters offer visions of both the past and present and the shaping of memory through landscapes that reach beyond their material presence into spaces of cultural and political power As we witness the evocation of Black Hawk serves as a painful reminder a forced deference and a veiled attempt to wipe away the guilt of past atrocities Re Collecting Black Hawk also points toward the future By simultaneously unsettling and reconstructing the Midwestern landscape Re Collecting Black Hawk envisions new modes of pea

Kentucky Women Melissa A. McEuen,Thomas H. Appleton Jr.,2015-04-15 Kentucky Women Their Lives and Times introduces a history as dynamic and diverse as Kentucky itself Covering the Appalachian region in the east to the Pennyroyal in the west the essays highlight women whose aspirations innovations activism and creativity illustrate Kentucky s role in political and social reform education health care the arts and cultural development The collection features women with well known names as well as those whose lives and work deserve greater attention Shawnee chief Nonhelema Hokesqua western Kentucky slave Matilda Lewis Threlkeld the sisters Emilie Todd Helm and Mary Todd Lincoln reformers Madeline McDowell Breckinridge and Laura Clay activists Anne McCarty Braden and Elizabeth Fouse politicians Georgia Davis Powers and Martha Layne Collins sculptor Enid Yandell writer Harriette Simpson Arnow and entrepreneur Nancy Newsom Mahaffey are covered in Kentucky Women representing a broad cross section of those who forged Kentucky's relationship with the American South and the nation at large. With essays on frontier life, gender inequality in marriage and divorce, medical advances, family strife, racial challenges and triumphs, widowhood, agrarian culture, urban experiences, educational theory and fieldwork, visual art, literature and fame, the contributors have shaped a history of Kentucky that is both grounded and groundbreaking.

The Death Penalty Roger Hood, Carolyn Hoyle, 2015-01-08. The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty. The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place. Emphasising the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse, the authors examine how this has fuelled challenges to the death penalty and they analyse and appraise the likely obstacles, political and cultural, to further abolition. They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness, discrimination and conviction of the innocent, all violations of the right to life. They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect, shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns. This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel, inhuman and degrading. Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide, this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal.

Negotiating at Work Deborah M. Kolb, Jessica L. Porter, 2015-01-06. Understand the context of negotiations to achieve better results. Negotiation has always been at the heart of solving problems at work. Yet today when people in organizations are asked to do more with less, be responsive 24/7 and manage in rapidly changing environments, negotiation is more essential than ever. What has been missed in much of the literature of the past 30 years is that negotiations in organizations always take place within a context of organizational culture, of prior negotiations, of power relationships that dictates which issues are negotiable and by whom. When we negotiate for new opportunities or increased flexibility, we never do it in a vacuum. We challenge the status quo and we build out the path for others to negotiate those issues after us. In this way, negotiating for ourselves at work can create small wins that can grow into something bigger for ourselves and our organizations. Seen in this way, negotiation becomes a tool for addressing ineffective practices and outdated assumptions and for creating change. Negotiating at Work offers practical advice for managing your own workplace negotiations: how to get opportunities, promotions, flexibility, buy-in, support and credit for your work. It does so within the context of organizational dynamics, recognizing that to negotiate with someone who has more power adds a level of complexity. This is true when we negotiate with our superiors and also true for individuals currently under-represented in senior leadership roles whose managers may not recognize certain issues as barriers or obstacles Negotiating at Work is rooted in real life cases of professionals from a wide range of industries and organizations both national and international Strategies to get the other person to the table and engage in creative problem solving even when they are reluctant to do so Tips on how to recognize opportunities to negotiate bolster your confidence prior to the negotiation turn asks into a negotiation and advance negotiations that get stuck A rich examination of research on negotiation conflict management and gender By using these strategies you can negotiate successfully for your job and your career in a larger field you can also alter organizational practices and policies that impact others Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2013 Education Reform: The Unwinding of Intelligence and Creativity Des Griffin,2013-12-19 This book pays special attention to the impact that a student s early childhood and socioeconomic status has on his or her educational achievement It argues that discussions of education reform need a broader scope one that encompasses a student s background as well as standardized testing merit pay for teachers and other issues regarding the quality of the teaching and learning Education Reform the Unwinding of Intelligence and Creativity features cases and examples from schools in Australia the USA and Britain It offers a breadth of coverage from early childhood to effective teaching and learning to teacher pay and conditions standardized testing and public and private independent schooling and universities as well as creativity It also includes summaries of educational policies in many developed countries Reforms which emphasize concern for early childhood school leadership and respect for teachers are contrasted with ones based on standardized tests private schools and sacking bad teachers Assembling the Centre: Architecture for Indigenous Cultures Janet McGaw,Anoma Pieris,2014-11-13 Metropolitan Indigenous Cultural Centres have become a focal point for making Indigenous histories and contemporary cultures public in settler colonial societies over the past three decades While there are extraordinary success stories there are equally stories that cause concern award winning architecturally designed Indigenous cultural centres that have been abandoned centres that serve the interests of tourists but fail to nourish the cultural interests of Indigenous stakeholders and places for vibrant community gathering that fail to garner the economic and politic support to remain viable Indigenous cultural centres are rarely static They are places of emergence assembled and re assembled along a range of vectors that usually lie beyond the gaze of architecture How might the traditional concerns of architecture site space form function materialities tectonics be reconfigured to express the complex and varied social identities of contemporary Indigenous peoples in colonised nations This book documents a range of Indigenous Cultural Centres across the globe and the processes that led to their development It explores the possibilities for the social and political project of the Cultural Centre that architecture both inhibits and affords Whose idea of architecture counts when designing Indigenous Cultural Centres How does architectural history and contemporary practice territorialise spaces of Indigenous occupation What is architecture for Indigenous cultures and how is it recognised This ambitious and provocative study pursues a new architecture for colonised Indigenous cultures that takes the politics of recognition to its heart It advocates an ethics of mutual engagement as a crucial condition for architectural projects that design across cultural difference The book s structure method and arguments are dialogically assembled around narratives told by Indigenous people of their pursuit of public recognition spatial justice and architectural presence in settler dominated societies Possibilities for decolonising architecture emerge through these accounts Teaching Macroeconomics Stefania Paredes Fuentes,2025-02-12 Through this informative guide the editor and contributing authors equip macroeconomics lecturers with tools and strategies to refresh their teaching content and practice Building educators confidence and inspiring the next generation of passionate economists it emphasises active learning critical thinking and real world applications moving beyond traditional lecture based instruction European Child Health Services And Systems: Lessons Without Borders Wolfe, Ingrid,McKee, Martin,2014-02-01 The book focuses on three key aspects of delivery of child health services service integration and coordination public health measures and enhancing the quality of care for children
