A Decision-Makers Guide to Public Private Partnerships in Airports Andy Ricover, Jeffrey Delmon, 2019-12-06
Airport development is critical to economic growth and poverty reduction This book will help decision makers assess whether Public Private Partnerships PPP might be a viable option to meet their airport development requirements It walks the reader through the airport PPP process from early preparation to bringing the project to market and managing the project during implementation The book will help eradicate misconceptions about the role of the private sector in airport infrastructure A Decision Makers Guide to Public Private Partnerships in Airports provides an essential guide for those in a position to make decisions linked to airport development to their advisers their staff and also to students wishing to understand airport PPP

Handbook on Poverty and Social Analysis Asian Development Bank, 2012-12-01 The Asian Development Bank ADB supports inclusive growth in the Asia and Pacific region by giving attention to the poverty impact and social dimensions of its operations This publication contributes to this endeavor by providing practical guidance to ADB staff government officers project stakeholders and consultants involved in programming preparing and implementing activities for them to effectively address poverty and social dimensions in ADB financed operations The handbook provides a road map to specific ADB policies and procedures related to poverty and social analysis with the end view of achieving inclusive equitable and sustainable development outcomes

How to Improve Public Investment Management in Low-Income Countries
Khaled Eltokhy, Nicoletta Feruglio, Kezhou Miao, Arturo Navarro, Mr. Eivind Tandberg, 2025-01-15 This How to Note discusses how low income developing countries LIDCs can strengthen the effectiveness and efficiency of their public investment The note draws on Public Investment Management Assessments and focuses on eight institutions that are likely to be key reform priorities in many LIDCs project appraisal multi year budgeting maintenance project selection procurement availability of funding project management and monitoring of public assets For each of these the note discusses basic practices which should be realistic initial reform objectives for low capacity countries as well as medium practices that may be relevant objectives for medium term reforms The note also discusses how to overcome reform implementation challenges and consolidate the reforms and provides examples of action plans to implement the different reforms

Public Investment Management Reference Guide Jay-Hyung Kim, Jonas Arp Fallov, Simon Groom, 2020-03-03 The Public Investment Management PIM Reference Guide aims to convey country experiences and good international practices as a basis for decisions on how to address a country specific PIM reform agenda The country references are drawn largely from previous diagnostics and technical assistance reports of the World Bank The application of country diagnostics and assessments has revealed a need to address the following issues when undertaking a country reform in PIM Clarification of the definition and scope of public investment and public investment management Establishment of a sound legal regulatory and institutional setting for PIM making sure it is linked to the budget process Allocation of roles and responsibilities for key players in PIM across government Strengthening of guidance on project preappraisal appraisal and selection prioritization procedures and deepening of project appraisal methodologies Integration of strategic planning project appraisal selection and capital budgeting Management of multiyear capital budget allocations and commitments Efforts to address effective implementation procurement and monitoring of projects Strengthening of asset management and ex post evaluation Integration of PIM and public private partnership PPP in a unified framework Rationalization and prioritization of the existing PIM project portfolio Development of a PIM database and information technology in the form of a PIM information system The PIM Reference Guide does not seek to provide definitive answers or standard guidance for the common PIM issues facing countries Nor does it seek to provide a detailed template for replication across countries this would be impossible given the diversity of country situations Instead each chapter begins with an overview of the specific reform issue lists approaches and experiences from different countries and summarizes the references and good practices to be considered in designing country specific reform actions
