Prolegomena To Charity Perspectives In Continental Philosophy:

Prolegomena to Charity Jean-Luc Marion, 2002 Prolegomena to Charity Jean-Luc Marion, 2002 In seven essays that draw from metaphysics phenomenology literature Christological theology and Biblical exegesis Marion sketches several prolegomena to a future fuller thinking and saying of love's paradoxical reasons exploring evil freedom bedazzlement and the loving gaze crisis absence and knowing Jean-Luc Marion Robyn Horner, 2017-03-02 Jean Luc Marion is one of the leading Catholic thinkers of our time a formidable authority on Descartes and a major scholar in the philosophy of religion This book presents a concise accessible and engaging introduction to the theology of Jean Luc Marion Described as one of the leading thinkers of his generation Marion's take on the postmodern is richly enhanced by his expertise in patristic and mystical theology phenomenology and modern philosophy In this first introduction to Marion's thought Robyn Horner provides the essential background to Marion's work as well as analysing the most significant themes for contemporary theology This book serves as an ideal starting point for students of theology and philosophy as well as for those seeking to further their knowledge of cutting edge thinking in contemporary theology Qualitative Research in the Post-Modern Era Robert E. White, Karyn Cooper, 2022-09-29 This volume describes and discusses some of the intricacies associated with qualitative research in this post modern era It is the second of a two volume set It strives to define terms identifies paradigms methodologies and approaches that are applicable to novice and expert researchers alike The book pays special attention to the biographies of those individuals who have helped to shape and develop these methodologies or research designs In addition consideration is given to historical and political underpinnings that relate to the development of qualitative research methodologies Each research design is described in detail and the similarities and differences among them are explored This volume makes use of a contextual approach to research and features interviews with scholars who have assisted in developing such methodologies Of interest are numerous features such as questions for further study and annotated bibliographies that extend the scope of each of the methodologies described Cross and Khôra Marko Zlomislić, Neal DeRoo, 2010-01-01 This volume poses the question of the relationship between the two main influences on the thought of John D Caputo one of the most well known philosophers of religion working in North America today Jacques Derrida and Jesus Christ Given the seemingly abstract character of Derrida's account of the messianic how can one reconcile deconstruction and the concrete messianism of Christianity as Caputo tries to do over and over again How can one hold together the love of a God willing to be crucified and the dry desert khôra which doesn't care This collection of essays from world renowned scholars seeks to illuminate the difficulties inherent in this seemingly contradictory pair of influences With his trademark wit and humor Caputo responds to his interlocutors while clarifying his position on numerous matters of interest to the church and in the academy In addition to dealing with the concern for issues of hermeneutics phenomenology and negative theology for which Caputo has become famous these essays also evaluate Caputo's legacy in fields previously not thought to be affected by his deconstructive version of religion feminism sacramental theology Analytic philosophy of religion and Christology The Reality of Love Ingvild Rosok,2018-01-12 Love is one and love is all we need This book argues against the traditional theological view that God s love differs from human love If God is love and love is one we will find God embodied in all kinds of genuine love experiences By analyzing Karl Rahner s theology of love the author explores how God penetrates and embraces the whole of reality suggesting implications for Christian spirituality and spiritual direction Preaching After God Phil Snider,2012-08-01 Even though the postmodern return of religion is dramatically shaping the future of twenty first century theology its riches for preaching are rarely mined Preaching After God highlights the trajectories of the postmodern return of religion by introducing readers to the positive theological themes stirring in the work of influential philosophers like Jacques Derrida John Caputo and Slavoj i ek Phil Snider shows how engaging their thought provides possibilities for preaching that highly resonate with postmodern listeners Preachers familiar with the postmodern return of religion will appreciate its homiletical appropriation while those introduced to it for the first time will discover just how much it is helpful for the preaching task Six lectionary based sermons are included as examples

Prophets of the Posthuman Christina Bieber Lake,2013-09-30 Prophets of the Posthuman provides a fresh and original reading of fictional narratives that raise the question of what it means to be human in the face of rapidly developing bioenhancement technologies Christina Bieber Lake argues that works by Nathaniel Hawthorne Walker Percy Flannery O Connor Toni Morrison George Saunders Marilynne Robinson Raymond Carver James Tiptree Jr and Margaret Atwood must be reevaluated in light of their contributions to larger ethical questions Drawing on a wide range of sources in philosophical and theological ethics Lake claims that these writers share a commitment to maintaining a category of personhood more meaningful than that allowed by utilitarian ethics Prophets of the Posthuman insists that because technology can never ask whether we should do something that we have the power to do literature must step into that role Each of the chapters of this interdisciplinary study sets up a typical ethical scenario regarding human enhancement technology and then illustrates how a work of fiction uniquely speaks to that scenario exposing a realm of human motivations that might otherwise be overlooked or simplified Through the vision of the writers she discusses Lake uncovers a deep critique of the ascendancy of personal autonomy as America s most cherished value This ascendancy coupled with technology s glamorous promises of happiness helps to shape a utilitarian view of persons that makes responsible ethical behavior toward one another almost impossible Prophets of the Posthuman charts the essential role that literature must play in the continuing conversation of what it means to be human in a posthuman world Mission from the Perspective of the Other Tim Noble,2018-08-30 Christian mission involves God the missionary and the other the recipient of mission This book argues for the centrality of this other in the practice of mission The other as child of God is presented not as an empty vessel waiting to be filled but as the one who draws near to the missionary Both are sent by God and together they enter into the journey towards God Drawing on

Scripture contemporary missiology and phenomenology the book argues for the importance of this often neglected other and demonstrates through historical case studies involving Saint Ignatius of Loyola William Carey and Saint Innocent of Alaska that the recognition of the gift of the other has always been present in Christian mission and can continue to inspire God of All Comfort Scott Harrower, 2019-04-24 How does God respond to trauma in a world full of horrors Beyond their physical and emotional toll the horrors of this world raise difficult theological and existential questions Where is God in the darkest moments of the human experience Is there any hope for recovery from the trauma generated by these horrors There are no easy answers to these questions In God of All Comfort Scott Harrower addresses these questions head on Using the Gospel of Matthew as a backdrop he argues for a Trinitarian approach to horrors showing how God in his triune nature reveals himself to those who have experienced trauma He explores the many ways God relates restoratively with humanity showing how God's light shines through the darkness of trauma
