Process Sarah Stodola, 2015 Ernest Hemingway Zadie Smith Joan Didion Franz Kafka David Foster Wallace and more In Process acclaimed journalist Sarah Stodola examines the creative methods of literature's most transformative figures Each chapter contains a mini biography of one of the world's most lauded authors focused solely on his or her writing process Unlike how-to books that preach writing techniques or rules Process puts the true methods of writers on display in their most captivating incarnation within the context of the lives from which they sprang Drawn from both existing material and original research and interviews Stodola brings to light the fascinating unique and illuminating techniques behind these literary behemoths

Steinbeck's Imaginarium Robert DeMott, 2022-11-15 In Steinbeck's Imaginarium Robert DeMott delves into the imaginative creative and sometimes neglected aspects of John Steinbeck's writing DeMott positions Steinbeck as a prophetic voice for today as much as he was for the Depression era 1930s as the essays explore the often unknown or unacknowledged elements of Steinbeck's artistic career that deserve closer attention He writes about the determining scientific influences such as quantum physics and ecology in Cannery Row and considers Steinbeck's addiction to writing through the lens of the extensive obsessive full-length journals that he kept while writing three of his best-known novels The Grapes of Wrath The Wayward Bus and East of Eden DeMott insists that these monumental works of fiction all comprise important statements on his creative process and his theory of fiction writing DeMott further blends his personal experience as a lifelong angler with a reading of several neglected fishing episodes in Steinbeck's work Collectively the chapters illuminate John Steinbeck as a fully conscious self-aware literate experimental novelist whose talents will continue to warrant study and admiration for years to come
