Stéphane Messinas

Portrait de Julien

Il avait les joues roses et les yeux bleus. C'était un petit jeune homme de dix-huit à dix-neuf ans, faible en apparence, avec des traits angéliques, mais délicats et un nez aquilin. De grandes yeux noirs, qui, dans les moments tranquilles, annonçaient de la réflexion et de la tristesse, animés en cet instant de l'expression de la haine la plus féroce. Des cheveux châtains foncés, plantés fort bas, lui donnaient un petit front, et, dans les moments de colère, un air coiffant. Parmi les innombrables variétés de la physiognomie humaine, il n'en est peut-être point qui se soit distinguée par une spécialité plus saisissante. Une taille svelte et bien prise annonçait plus de légèreté que de vigueur. Des membres jeunes, non seulement l'élève à son âge, mais plusieurs avaient donné l'idée à son père qu'il ne vivrait pas, ou qu'il vivrait pour être une charge à sa famille. Obligé des soins de son père, il habitait ses frères et son père ; dans les jours de dimanche, sur la place publique, il était toujours hanté.
