National Constitutions in European and Global Governance: Democracy, Rights, the Rule of Law Anneli Albi, Samo Bardutzky, 2019-05-29 This two volume book published open access brings together leading scholars of constitutional law from twenty nine European countries to revisit the role of national constitutions at a time when decision making has increasingly shifted to the European and transnational level It offers important insights into three areas First it explores how constitutions reflect the transfer of powers from domestic to European and global institutions Secondly it revisits substantive constitutional values such as the protection of constitutional rights the rule of law democratic participation and constitutional review along with constitutional court judgments that tackle the protection of these rights and values in the transnational context e.g. with regard to the Data Retention Directive, the European Arrest Warrant, the ESM Treaty and EU and IMF austerity measures. The responsiveness of the ECJ regarding the above rights and values along with the standard of protection is also assessed. Thirdly, challenges in the context of global governance in relation to judicial review, democratic control and accountability are examined. On a broader level, the contributors were also invited to reflect on what has increasingly been described as the erosion or twilight of constitutionalism or a shift to a thin version of the rule of law, democracy and judicial review in the context of Europeanisation and globalisation processes. The national reports are complemented by a separately published comparative study which identifies a number of broader trends and challenges that are shared across several Member States and warrant wider discussion. The research for this publication and the comparative study were carried out within the framework of the ERC funded project 'The Role and Future of National Constitutions in European and Global Governance'. The book is aimed at scholars, researchers, judges and legal advisors working on the interface between national constitutional law and EU and transnational law. The extradition cases are also of interest to scholars and practitioners in the field of criminal law. Anneli Albi is Professor of European Law at the University of Kent, United Kingdom. Samo Bardutzky is Assistant Professor of Constitutional Law at the University of Ljubljana, Slovenia.

Market and Competition Authorities Annetje Ottow, 2015-03-26. Market and competition authorities operate in a complex environment with conflicting stakeholder demands. Balancing the various interests of the authority and stakeholder in an objective and impartial manner is strategic to achieving the goals of the legislation imposed. In a fresh approach examining the actions of an authority when a regulation is applied, Annetje Ottow argues the vital importance of the behaviour of authorities focusing on five fundamental good agency principles: legality, independence, transparency, effectiveness and responsibility or LITER. These principles provide agencies and those reviewing their actions with a framework for agency design and action. Combining theory and practice to provide insight into agencies' organization and behaviour, this book outlines and analyses behavioural issues using an ecosystemic method, addressing how independent agencies should be assessed and which principles should apply. Using cases from the Netherlands and the UK, Ottow examines the key processes of authorities against the LITER principles and opens the debate on how to regulate the agency.

Dawn Raids Under Challenge Helene Andersson, 2018-06-28. This book examines the European Commission's dawn raid practices in competition cases from a fundamental rights perspective. In recent years, the Commission has adopted a new and more aggressive enforcement policy amid a growing awareness that cartels and abuse of market power represent an economic harm and need to be punished. In response, enforcement has been strengthened by the grant of more wide-reaching powers to competition authorities. But how does this impact on the framework of fundamental rights? This study seeks to answer that question by examining the obligations imposed by the Charter and the ECHR and the response of the Luxembourg and Strasbourg Courts It shows that where the Strasbourg Court has managed to strike a balance between efficiency concerns and the rights of undertakings the EU courts judicial control is not equally balanced This book is an essential and timely examination of this important question Varieties of Legal Order Thomas F. Burke, Jeb Barnes, 2017-08-14 Across the globe law in all its variety is becoming more central to politics public policy and everyday life For over four decades Robert A Kagan has been a leading scholar of the causes and consequences of the march of law that is characteristic of late 20th and early 21st century governance In this volume top sociolegal scholars use Kagan s concepts and methods to examine the politics of litigation and regulation both in the United States and around the world Through studies of civil rights law tobacco politics Eurolegalism Russian auto accidents Australian coal mines and California prisons these scholars probe the politics of different forms of law and the complex path by which law on the books shapes social life Like Kagan s scholarship Varieties of Legal Order moves beyond stale debates about litigiousness and overregulation and invites us to think more imaginatively about how the rise of law and legalism will shape politics and social life in the 21st century Consumer Involvement in Private EU Competition Law Enforcement Maria Ioannidou, 2015 This book is a timely and comprehensive examination of consumer participation in EU competition law enforcement Using in depth analysis of recent case law and policy documents it offers a clear and innovative framework of the subject s normative and practical aspects and proposes necessary remedial and procedural rules to enable participation
