Process Theology Bruce G. Epperly, 2014-02-17 Process theology is considered a very complex and difficult to understand system Is it possible to get a basic grasp of what it is and how it impacts our lives and service to others In this brief lively and engaging book Dr Bruce Epperly untangles the difficult concepts of process theology and shows how we can envision a God who is in relation to us throughout our lives here and in the next world He believes that God is present at the moment of our conception guides us through the adventures of this lifetime urging us to rejoice in embodiment and bring healing to our world and upon our final earthly breath receives us with open arms with visions of future adventures in communion with God and our fellow creatures Not only is this theology easy to understand but it also challenges us to live out God's adventure in with joy sharing God's life with all of God's creatures This book is an excellent introduction to process theology useful for small groups or individual study and includes a list of resources for further study Process

Spirituality Bruce G Epperly,2017-11-20 What one believes about God shapes how one worships prays thinks and lives Dr Bruce Epperly who provided a very short introduction to process theology in Process Theology Embracing Adventure with God now provides a short and succinct guide to spiritual practices for those who want to embrace and live the adventurous spiritual life From times of worship to prayer to solitude and even to study he provides a guide to living with a God who is deeply and intimately involved in our lives Holiness and spirituality are not about being other worldly Rather they are about being even more in the here and now than any of us may have thought possible With exercises affirmations and a variety of spiritual practices explained and theologically grounded this book is a valuable resource for small group study as well as for individual reading Religion and Ecological Crisis Md. Abu Sayem,2022-09-02 Religion and Ecological Crisis delves into the complex relationship between religions and ecology presenting Christian and Islamic perspectives on ecological issues through the work of John Boswell Cobb and Seyyed Hossein Nasr It examines how faith traditions of the world see and respond to our current unprecedented climate change issues This is the first comparative study of Cobb and Nasr's eco religious understanding and explores how their prescriptions can contribute alternatively to techno scientific initiatives in environmental sustainability Taking Cobb's economism and Nasr's scientism as the key concepts for surveying the roots of the ecological crisis the book offers interdisciplinary and interreligious insights into the debates about ecological equilibrium motivational awareness in human mind and about entanglements between religion and the environment This will be an insightful resource for policy makers faith leaders and for academics working in Environmental Studies and Religious Studies

The Journey of Modern Theology Roger E. Olson,2013-11-01 In this major revision and expansion of the classic 20th Century Theology 1992 coauthored with Stanley J Grenz Roger Olson tells the full story of modern theology from Descartes to Caputo from the Kantian revolution to postmodernism now recast in terms of how theologians have accommodated or rejected modernity The Trinity among the Nations Gene L. Green,Stephen T. Pardue,K. K. Yeo,2015-11-14 The second volume of an exciting new series exploring global theology Though the global center of Christianity has been shifting south and east over the past few decades very few theological resources have dealt with the seismic changes afoot The Majority World Theology series seeks to remedy that lack by gathering well regarded Christian thinkers from around the world to discuss the significance of Christian teaching in their respective contexts The Trinity among the Nations focuses on Christian understandings of the character and work of God in various contexts The contributors highlight global trends in trinitarian theology in relation to historic Christian confessions especially the Nicene Creed and draw out the rich implications of the doctrine of God for the church and Christian living today Triune Well-Being Jacqueline Service,2024-07-08 That God is the perfection of all blessed abundance and the source and context for creation's well being tends merely to be assumed in theology. Yet how does God enact all blessedness and actualize God's own abundantly enriched life? And how might such a reality be relevant to human well being? Addressing these questions in Triune Well Being: The Kenotic Enrichment of the Eternal Trinity, Jacqueline Service traces the dynamics of Divine well being through Scripture, Christian metaphysics, and a synthesis of Orthodox Bulgakov, Catholic Von Balthasar, and Protestant Pannenberg Trinitarian theologies to argue that God's all blessed life, the glory of well being, is symbiotic with triune self-giving kenosis, a concept identified as kenotic enrichment or enriching kenosis. Such a trinitarian exploration not only offers a fresh perspective on the contested topic of kenosis but goes to the heart of a doctrine of God that implicates the possibility of the well being of all life. Theopoetics and Religious Difference Marius van Hoogstraten, 2020-09-30. Why are interreligious encounters and relations both more troubling and more promising than typically assumed, and how can this be embraced? In engaging the contemporary theological discourse of theopoetics, Marius van Hoogstraten offers a way of approaching religious difference that while perhaps unusual to readers familiar with more conventional theology, may be especially fitting for this age.
