of a hard drinking artist by an author who writes about the rural South without sentimentality but with plenty of sharp witted humor NPR Morning Edition Renegade artist Harp Spillman is lower than a bow legged fire ant Because of an unhealthy relationship with the bottle he s ruined his reputation as one of the South s preeminent commissioned metal sculptors And his desperate turn to ice sculpting might ve led to a posse of angry politicians on his trail With the help of his sane and practical wife Raylou Harp understands that it s time to get his act together and prove that he can complete a series of twelve foot high metal angels welded completely out of hex nuts for the city of Birmingham Is it pure chance that the Elbow Boys with arms voluntarily fused together so they can t drink show up in order to help Harp And why did his neighbor smuggle anteaters into the desolate little South Carolina town of Ember Glow Harp is drying out but somehow being sober isn t making the world seem any less confusing Engagingly comic Singleton has a flair for capturing Southern eccentricity and Raylou s imperturbable patience is just as funny in its way as Harp s self loathing Publishers Weekly If there is a fiction genre blending the riotous bleary eyed excess and absurdity of gonzo journalism with the rather earnest sensitivity of a John Irving hero who always does right by his wife in the end Work Shirts belongs to it It s a fun read An adventure to be undertaken Newsweek The Georgia Review ,2009
