Performing Piety Singers And Actors In Egypt's Islamic Revival:

Performing Piety Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2013-10-01 In the 1980s Egypt witnessed a growing revival of religiosity among large sectors of the population including artists. Many pious stars retired from art, repented from sinful activities and dedicated themselves to worship, preaching and charity. Their public conversions were influential in spreading piety to the Egyptian upper class during the 1990s, which in turn enabled the development of pious markets for leisure and art, thus facilitating the return of artists as veiled actresses or religiously committed performers. Revisiting the story she began in A Trade like Any Other: Female Singers and Dancers in Egypt, Karin van Nieuwkerk draws on extensive fieldwork among performers to offer a unique history of the religious revival in Egypt through the lens of the performing arts. She highlights the narratives of celebrities who retired in the 1980s and early 1990s, including their spiritual journeys and their influence on the pietization of their fans, among whom are the wealthy, relatively secular strata of Egyptian society. Van Nieuwkerk then turns to the emergence of a polemic public sphere in which secularists and Islamists debated Islam, art and gender in the 1990s. Finally, she analyzes the Islamist project of art with a mission and the development of Islamic aesthetics, questioning whether the outcome has been to Islamize popular art or rather to popularize Islam. The result is an intimate thirty-year history of two spheres that have tremendous importance for Egypt's art production and piety.

Enjoying Religion Frans Jaspers, Paul van der Velde, Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2018-08-15 Enjoying religion seems to be a contradiction because religion is generally perceived as a serious or even suppressive phenomenon. This volume is the first to study the increase of enjoying religion systematically by presenting eleven new case studies occurring on four continents. The volume concludes that in our late modern secular societies the enjoyment of religion or of its loose elements is growing. In particular, when scholars concentrate on lived religion of ordinary people, the cheerful experiences appear to prevail. Many people use pleasant elements of religion to add meaning to their lives, to find spiritual fulfillment or a way to salvation and to experience belonging to a larger unity. At the same time, diverse cultural dynamics of late modern society, such as popular culture, commercialization, re-enchantment and feminization, influence this trend of enjoying religion. In spite of secularization, playing with religion appears to be attractive.

Music, Culture and Identity in the Muslim World Kamal Salhi, 2013-12-17 In contrast to many books on Islam that focus on political rhetoric and activism, this book explores Islam's extraordinarily rich cultural and artistic diversity, showing how sound music and bodily performance offer a window onto the subtleties and humanity of Islamic religious experience. Through a wide range of case studies from West Asia, South Asia and North Africa and their diasporas, including studies of Sufi chanting in Egypt and Morocco, dance in Afghanistan and Muslim punk on line, the book demonstrates how Islam should not be conceived of as being monolithic or monocultural. How there is a large disagreement within Islam as to how music and performance should be approached, such disagreements being closely related to debates about orthodoxy, secularism and moderate and fundamental Islam, and how important cultural activities have been and continue to be for the formation of Muslim identity Brothers Behind Bars Mathias Ghyoot, 2025-03-14 Brothers Behind Bars tells the harrowing yet fascinating story of the imprisonment of the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt the largest Islamist movement in Middle Eastern history From 1948 to 1975 thousands of members of the Muslim Brotherhood entered Egypt's prisons due to political clashes with the ruling powers first King Farouk and later President Gamal Abdel Nasser Based on a wealth of understudied material including prison memoirs diaries poems plays magazines novels and more Brothers Behind Bars gives voice to ordinary Muslim Brothers and a handful of Sisters and offers a new understanding of Islamism in twentieth century Egypt New Approaches to Islam in Film Kristian Petersen, 2021-04-26 Many global film industries fail in expanding the role of Muslims on screen Too often they produce a dichotomy between good and bad Muslims limiting the narrative domain to issues of national security war and terrorism Naturally much of the previous scholarship on Muslims in film focused on stereotypes and the politics of representation This collection of essays from an international panel of contributors significantly expands the boundaries of discussion around Muslims in film asking new questions of the archive and magnifying analyses of particular cultural productions The volume includes the exploration of regional cinemas detailed analysis of auteurs and individual films comparison across global cinema and new explorations that have not yet entered the conversation The interdisciplinary collection provides an examination of the multiple roles Islam plays in film and the various ways Muslims are depicted Across the chapters key intersecting themes arise that push the limits of how we currently approach issues of Muslims in cinema and ventures to lead us in new directions for future scholarship This book adds new depth to the matrix of previous scholarship by revisiting methodological structures and sources as well as exploring new visual geographies transnational circuits and approaches It reframes the presiding scholarly conventions in five novel trajectories considering new sources exploring new communities probing new perspectives charting new theoretical directions and offering new ways of understanding conflict in cinema As such it will be of great use to scholars working in Islamic Studies Film Studies Religious Studies and Media Public Culture and Islam in Modern Egypt Hatsuki Aishima, 2016-04-25 What does it mean to be an intellectual in Egypt today What is expected from an authentic scholar Hatsuki Aishima explores these questions by examining educated urban Egyptians and their perceptions of what it means to be cultured and middle class something that as a result of the neoliberal policies of Egyptian government is widely thought to be a shrinking sector of society Through an analysis of the media representations of Abd al Halim Mahmud 1910-78 the French trained Sufi scholar and the Grand Imam of al Azhar under president Anwar al Sadat Aishima discusses the connection of Islam to these middle class considerations and makes an original contribution to the debate on the commodification of religious teaching and knowledge Public Culture and Islam in Modern Egypt is thereby a unique addition to the fields of anthropology Middle East and media studies A Secular Age beyond the West Mirjam Künkler, John Madeley, Shylashri Shankar, 2018-07-05 This book traces religion and secularity in eleven countries not shaped by Western
