The Art of Life in South Africa Daniel Magaziner,2016-11-09 From 1952 to 1981 South Africa s apartheid government ran an art school for the training of African art teachers at Indaleni in what is today KwaZulu Natal The Art of Life in South Africa is the story of the students teachers art and politics that circulated through a small school housed in a remote former mission station It is the story of a community that made its way through the travails of white supremacist South Africa and demonstrates how the art students and teachers made together became the art of their lives Daniel Magaziner radically reframes apartheid era South African history Against the dominant narrative of apartheid oppression and black resistance as well as recent scholarship that explores violence criminality and the hopeless entanglements of the apartheid state this book focuses instead on a small group s efforts to fashion more fulfilling lives for its members and their community through the ironic medium of the apartheid era school There is no book like this in South African historiography Lushly illustrated and poetically written it gives us fully formed lives that offer remarkable insights into the now clichéd experience of black life under segregation and apartheid

New Histories of South Africa's Apartheid-Era Bantustans Shireen Ally,Arianna Lissoni,2017-06-26 The bantustans or homelands were created by South Africa s apartheid regime as ethnically defined territories for Africans Granted self governing and independent status by Pretoria they aimed to deflect the demands for full political representation by black South Africans and were shunned by the anti apartheid movement In 1972 Steve Biko wrote that politically the bantustans are the greatest single fraud ever invented by white politicians With the end of apartheid and the first democratic elections of 1994 the bantustans formally ceased to exist but their legacies remain inscribed in South Africa s contemporary social cultural political and economic landscape While the older literature on the bantustans has tended to focus on their repressive role and political illegitimacy this edited volume offers new approaches to the histories and afterlives of the former bantustans in South Africa by a new generation of scholars This book was originally published as various special issues of the South African Historical Journal South Africa Survey ,1997 Reflections of South African Student Leaders: 1994 to 2017 Ntokozo Bhengu,Denyse Webbstock,2020-05-13 Reflections of South African Student Leaders 1994 2017 brings together the reflections of twelve former SRC leaders from across the landscape of South African universities Reviews of the previous volume 1981 2014 suggested that it contributed significantly to a better understanding of the stringent demands of visionary and transformative leadership required by university leaders in the fastchanging and increasingly complex public higher education sector This volume is based on comprehensive interviews with former student leaders each of whom provided a personal account in their own words of their experience in the position of student leadership The interviewees are from different backgrounds and of diverse political persuasions The book is important for current and future leaders of higher education institutions as it provides insights into the thinking aspirations desires fears and modus operandi of student leaders Such insight can contribute to developing and implementing appropriate strategies for achieving meaningful and constructive engagement with current and future student leaders Information Series - National Bureau of Educational and Social Research South Africa.
