Pwc Ifrs Pocket Guide:

Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson,Ralph Adler,2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education An international journal

New Models of Financing and Financial Reporting for European SMEs Eva Kaili,Dimitrios Psarrakis,Raz van Hoinaru,2019-02-28 This book looks at the 23 million registered Small and Medium Enterprises SMEs that make up 98 per cent of the EU economy Addressing the high end of SMEs in terms of new models for SME funding and financial reporting this merged way of looking at SMEs reveals a myopic thinking in terms of net present value and future cash flows generating short termism and low risk appetite for business This is not an accounting issue but rather a preference toward certain financial tools A segment of SMEs the ones that seek new ways of funding possibilities as well as modern technologies MTFs listing blockchain ICOs etc do require even without knowing IFRS for SMEs This book reveals how market conditions impact the financial performance and sustainability of SMEs and also generate innovative policy interventions and financing strategies for SME integrity and efficiency The authors frame their arguments in the context of the Capital Markets Union looking at the Innovation Triangle SME growth ecosystem and business models They conclude by advocating for closing the circle of financing and financial reporting for SMEs while considering if new financial models of financing and financial reporting are good for all the SMEs or only for some The economy is being shaped by new models of financing and financial reporting Read this practitioners view to understand the current changes and challenges

New Trends in Process

Control and Production Management Lenka Štofová,Petra Szaryszová,2017-09-27 Dynamic economics technological changes increasing pressure from competition and customers to improve manufacturing and services are some of the major challenges to enterprises these days New ways of improving organizational activities and management processes have to be created in order to allow enterprises to manage the seemingly intensifying competitive markets successfully Enterprises apply business optimizing solutions to meet new challenges and conditions But also ensuring effective development for long term competitiveness in a global environment This is necessary for the application of qualitative changes in the industrial policy New Trends in Process Control and Production Management MTS 2017 is the collection of research papers from authors from seven countries around the world They present case studies and empirical research which illustrates the progressive trends in business process management and the drive to achieve enterprise development and sustainability

Strategic Finance, 2008 Studies in Accounting and Finance Arun Kumar Basu, 2013-08 Reaching Key Financial Reporting Decisions Stella Fearnley, Vivien Beattie, Tony Hines, 2011-08-04 The regulatory framework for financial reporting auditing and governance has changed radically in recent years as a result of problems identified from the Enron scandal and more recently from the drive to implement global standards In a key regulatory change a company audit committee is now expected to play a significant role in agreeing the contents of the financial statements and overseeing the activities of the auditors Finance Directors Audit Committee Chairs and Audit Engagement Partners are required to discuss and negotiate financial reporting and auditing issues a significant process leading to the agreement of the published numbers and disclosures and to the issuing of the auditor s report which accompanies them but which is entirely unobservable by third parties Reaching Key Financial Reporting Decisions How Directors and Auditors Interact is a fascinating behind the scenes examination of this closed process The authors draw on the results of face to face interviews and an extensive survey of finance directors audit committee chairs and audit partners and present nine company case studies highlighting the process of discussion and negotiation and the methods by which the agreed financial reporting outcome was reached Detailed analysis of the case studies Allows those involved in the process to benchmark their behaviours against those of others Enables a comparison between the previous and current regulatory environments to see what has changed and sheds light on the sorts of behaviours the current regulatory framework encourages Evaluates the effectiveness of the changed regulatory regime providing evidence relevant to current policy debates concerning the value of audit IFRS and the relative merit of rules based versus principles based accounting standards in relation to professional judgement and compliance The unprecedented access and unique insights offered by this book make it invaluable for audit firm staff and partners audit committee chairs and company directors involved in agreeing the published financial statements as well as those who have an interest in the financial statements but do not have access to the negotiation process Management Des Stratégies À Découvrir, 2007 European Public Sector Accounting Peter Lorson, Susana Jorge, Ellen Haustein, 2023 Public sector accounting PSA and reporting was subject to considerable national reforms during the last decades and is in the focus of the European Commission aiming to harmonize the accounting systems of its Member States by developing European Public Sector Accounting Standards EPSAS Therefore the topic is of high relevance for both academia and practitioners This book provides different views about PSA in Europe as of today It spans topics such as history of PSA its differences to private sector accounting and finance statistics as well as budgeting A main part is devoted to International Public Sector Accounting Standards IPSAS by addressing their spread conceptual framework and selected public sector specific standards including a case study Also consolidated financial reporting is covered by drawing examples This textbook is not only of use for students and researchers but interested readers that seek for broad perspectives on PSA such as practitioners and members of intergovernmental organisations It intends to complement university teaching modules on PSA as those accessible for free under www.uni-rostock.de/weiterbildung/offene-uni-rostock-onlinekurse/european-public-sector-accounting Global Comparability of Financial Reporting Under IFRS Francesco De Luca, Ho-Tan-Phat Phan, 2022-11-14 The globalization of financial markets worldwide has progressively pushed toward simultaneous globalization of accounting information Thus during the last 50 years categories of preparers users and regulators have devoted their efforts to support the global comparability of financial reporting aiming at favoring the comparison of corporates financial performances at a cross country level In the same vein IASB national standard setters and jurisdictions have participated in and given momentum to this process At the same time academic research has followed this process and tried to build a theoretical framework to address the related issues to assess the impact on preparers users and regulators while defining hindrances and obstacles to the comparability of financial reporting especially in an IFRS environment In this context this book reviews research studies on the comparability of financial reporting at a global level as well as highlights empirical analyses that demonstrate the extent to which global comparability has been achieved and how it enhances value relevance of earnings across countries It also looks at the cross country investors perspectives by shaping the empirical analysis to provide further insights on the role of the Big Four auditing services in enhancing the comparability of earnings The book provides an original contribution to the current debate about the comparability of financial reporting under IFRS and will be useful for researchers in the field
