Public Speaking Michael Schliessmann, Laurie Haleta, 1994-07-01 Narrativized Strategic Choice John P.

DeRosa, 2020-07-23 In February 2019 Donald Trump announced the United States withdrew from the landmark Cold War era Intermediate Range Nuclear Forces Treaty with Russia sparking worldwide concerns over the specter of a new nuclear arms race The rational actor and game theoretic models dominating international relations literature failed to predict or explain this strategic choice Rationalist normative and materialist models of strategic choice saturate the study of international relations Scholars continue to expose the shortfalls in these approaches in explaining or predicting outcomes of strategic interactions In this timely study John P DeRosa advances a new model of strategic choice through a narrative lens This narrative turn reframes the logic to emphasize the propositions of motives perceptions preferences and the reflexive interaction of strategic choices Case studies of American and Russian nuclear arms control treaties from the negotiations of the Intermediate Range Nuclear Forces INF Treaty in 1987 to the crisis of the US withdrawal from the INF Treaty in 2019 support building a theory of narrativized strategic choice The Routledge Handbook of Strategic Communication

Derina Holtzhausen, Ansgar Zerfass, 2014-11-20 The Routledge Handbook of Strategic Communication provides a comprehensive review of research in the strategic communication domain and offers educators and graduate level students a compilation of approaches to and studies of varying aspects of the field The volume provides insights into ongoing discussions that build an emerging body of knowledge Focusing on the metatheoretical philosophical and applied aspects of strategic communication the parts of the volume cover Conceptual foundations Institutional and organizational dimensions Implementing strategic communication and Domains of practice An international set of authors contributes to this volume illustrating the broad arena in which this work is taking place A timely volume surveying the current state of scholarship this Handbook is essential reading for scholars in strategic communication at all levels of experience Public Speaking for Leaders Apoorva Bharadwaj, Pragyan Rath, 2021-06-23 This book studies the art of public speaking as oration instead of just ornamentation It repositions public speaking as a fundamental business leadership act and a solution enabling and problem solving communication approach Drawing on in depth case studies it considers various situations that a managerial leader encounters and delivers speech solutions as strategic manoeuvres for attaining desired targets The volume Deals with public speaking exclusively from a business perspective Produces a workable manual of managerial public speaking that introduces the concept of oration as Or Action oratory that leads to desired action Presents a variegated analysis of speech texts from history politics fiction social media film industry platform content and business product presentations Customises speeches into unique speech clusters where readers can readily find the type of speech texts they require for their own specific content development The first of its kind this book will be a key text for entrepreneurs corporate managers academic practitioners and executives It will also be of interest to students and researchers of behavioural economics rhetoric strategy communication studies business communication fiction theory generation studies and virtual reality studies 400+
