Punishment Leading Thoughts Tolstois Resurrection:

Leo Tolstoy, an Annotated Bibliography of English Language Sources to 1978 David R. Egan, Melinda A. Egan, 1979 The Meaning of Life and Death Michael Hauskeller, 2019-09-19 What is the point of living If we are all going to die anyway if nothing will remain of whatever we achieve in this life why should we bother trying to achieve anything in the first place Can we be mortal and still live a meaningful life Questions such as these have been asked for a long time but nobody has found a conclusive answer yet The connection between death and meaning however has taken centre stage in the philosophical and literary work of some of the world's greatest writers Fyodor Dostoyevsky Leo Tolstoy Søren Kierkegaard Arthur Schopenhauer Herman Melville Friedrich Nietzsche William James Ludwig Wittgenstein Marcel Proust and Albert Camus This book explores their ideas weaving a rich tapestry of concepts voices and images helping the reader to understand the concerns at the heart of those writers work and uncovering common themes and stark contrasts in their understanding of what kind of world we live in and what really matters in life Tolstoy's the Death of Ivan Il'ich Gary R. Jahn, 1999 This collection brings together critical essays by five literary specialists on the most celebrated work of Tolstoy's later period It contains landmark papers on the symbolism of the novel and on its central thematic concerns

Reflections on the Death of a Porcupine and Other Essays D. H. Lawrence, 1988-01-29 Reflections on the Death of a Porcupine and Other Essays restores what Lawrence wrote Reflection on the Death of a Porcupine D. H. Lawrence, 2019-02-20 This collection of essays by the author of Lady Chatterley's Lover presents his musings on literature politics and philosophy in a newly restored text Though D H Lawrence was one of the great writers of the twentieth century his works were severely corrupted by the stringent house styling of printers and the intrusive editing of timid publishers A team of scholars at Cambridge University Press has worked for more than thirty years to restore the definitive texts of D H Lawrence in The Cambridge Editions Between 1915 1925 D H Lawrence wrote a series of philosophicalish essays covering topics ranging from politics to nature and from religion to education Varying in tone from lighthearted humor to spiritual meditation they all share the underlying themes of Lawrence's mature work Be thyself As far as possible the editors of the Cambridge Editions series have restored these essays to their original form as Lawrence wrote them A discussion of the history of each essay is provided and several incomplete and unpublished essays are reproduced in an appendix Tolstoy's False Disciple Alexandra Popoff, 2014-11-15 On the snowy morning of February 8 1897 the Petersburg secret police were following Tolstoy's every move and he was always in the company of a man named Chertkov At sixty nine Russia's most celebrated writer was being treated like a major criminal and had abandoned his literary pursuits and become a spiritual mystic angering the Orthodox church and earning both the adoration and ire of his countrymen Tolstoy was recognizable enough with his peasant garb and beard but who was the man who towered over Tolstoy twenty years younger with a cold impenetrable look on his face This man Chertkov was a relative to the Tsars and nephew to the chief of the secret police and represented the very things Tolstoy had renounced class privilege unlimited power and wealth and yet Chertkov fascinated and attracted Tolstoy He would become the writer s closest confidant reading even his diary and at the end of Tolstoy s life Chertkov had him in his complete control preventing him from even seeing his own wife on his deathbed The Contemporary Review ,1909 The Westminster Review ,1914 Narrative Fiction and Death Sabine Köllmann,2023-09-29 Narrative Fiction and Death Dying Imagined offers a new perspective on the study of death in literature It focuses on narrative fiction that conveys the experience of dying from the internal perspective of a dying protagonist Writers from Victor Hugo in the early 1800s to Elif Shafak in the present day have imagined the unknowable final moments on the threshold to death This literary study examines the wide range of narrative strategies used to evoke the transition from life to death and to what effect revealing not only each writer s unique way of representing the dying experience the comparative reading also finds common concerns in these texts and uncovers surprising parallels and unexplored intertextual relations between works across time and space that will interest comparatists as well as specialists in the literatures discussed Students of individual texts examined here will benefit from detailed analyses of these works The fictional evocation of dying addresses our basic human fears offering catharsis consolation and a greater cognitive and emotional understanding of that unknowable experience Presented in an engaging and highly readable manner this study argues for literature s potential to challenge our assumptions about the end of life and change our approach to dying an aspect that will interest students and researchers of the health humanities palliative caregivers and all those interested in questions of the end of life Soul Survivor Philip Yancey,2012-02-16 Disillusioned by the distortions and hypocrisies of the church in which he grew up Philip Yancey set out in search of a life enhanced by faith instead of diminished by religion Having struggled to forge personal convictions about God amid the ironies of life and the incongruities of religion he looks closer at those whose lives radiate spiritual authenticity rather than pious posturing From Dostoevsky to Martin Luther King G K Chesterton to Paul Brand Yancey pays homage to some of the most remarkable selfless Christ like lives our world has known and asks what both he and we can do to find such beautiful faith in our own lives
