Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports

what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby-hatted father of a future President of the United States. It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured. But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy-five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr. Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections. The Dad Report Kevin Cook, 2015-05-25. An unforgettable look at how baseball families share our national pastime. Baseball honors legacies from cheering the home team to breaking in an old glove handed down from father to son. In The Dad Report, award-winning sportswriter Kevin Cook weaves a tapestry of uplifting stories in which fathers and sons from the sport's superstars to Cook and his own ball-playing father share the game. Almost two hundred father-son pairs have played in the big leagues. Cook takes us inside the clubhouses, homes, and lives of many of the greats: Aaron Boone follows grandfather Bob; father Ray and brother Bret to the majors; three generations of All Stars Barry Bonds and Ken Griffey Jr. strive to outdo their famous dads; Michael Jordan walks away from basketball to play minor league baseball to fulfill his father's dream. In visiting these legendary families, Cook discovers that ball-playing families are a lot like our own. Dan Haren regrets the long road trips that keep him from his kids; Ike Davis and his father debate whether Ike should pitch or play first base. Buddy Bell leads a generation of big leaguers determined to open their workplace clubhouse to their kids. Framing The Dad Report is the story of Kevin Cook's own father, Art Cook, a minor league pitcher, a loveable rogue with a wicked screwball. In Art's later years, Kevin phoned him almost every night to talk baseball. They called those nightly conversations the Dad Report. In time, Kevin came to see that these conversations were about much more than the game. That's what this book is about: the way fathers and sons talk baseball as a way of talking about everything: courage, fear, fun, family, morality, mortality, and how it's not whether you win or lose that counts; it's how you share the game. The Magic Diary of Mozambique Chris Stiles, 2006.
