Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

Opportunity House Michael V. Angrosino, 1997-12-02 Calling on a decade of participant observation at a residence for mentally retarded adults anthropologist Michael V Angrosino s riveting and de mystifying account offers an insider s picture of the lives of the inhabitants of Opportunity House Using the narrative device of a dozen fictional short stories told in the voices of various community members as well as that of the researcher Angrosino weaves a life histories approach to ethnography together with an innovative culture concept to tackle the complexities of representing marginalized subgroups As opposed to traditional clinical or statistical studies which have insufficiently conveyed the subjective and experiential perspectives of retarded people themselves Angrosino presents an intimate and complex picture of a highly functioning community with its cast of entrepreneurs bullies victims and do gooders This wonderfully readable and captivating account is therefore an important resource for those interested in mental illness and disability as well as a model for those experimenting with forms of ethnographic writing

Histories of Anthropology Gabriella D'Agostino, Vincenzo Matera, 2025-04-09 This edited volume presents for the first time a history of anthropology regarding not only the well known European and American traditions but also lesser known traditions extending its scope beyond the Western world It focuses on the results of these traditions in the present Taking into account the distinction between empire building and nation building anthropology introduced by G Stocking and taken up by U Hannerz the book investigates different histories of anthropology especially in ex colonial and marginal contexts It highlights how the hegemonic anthropologies have been accepted and assimilated in local contexts which approaches have been privileged by institutions and academies in different locations how the anthropological approach has been modelled and adapted according to specific knowledge requirements related to the cultural features of different areas and which schools emerge as the most consolidated today Each chapter presents a cultural history of one of the historical cultural and geo political contexts that influenced and produced the specific disciplinary traditions The chapters highlight the local contributions to the discipline the influences that the world centres have on the peripheries but also the ways in which the peripheries have learned from the centres in order to re elaborate meaningful or otherwise recognisable disciplinary lines

Feminist Ethnography

Dána-Ain Davis,Christa Craven,2022-03-01 Feminist Ethnography Second Edition is an interdisciplinary and cross cultural introduction to the methods challenges and possibilities of feminist ethnography Dána-Ain Davis and Christa Craven use a problem based approach focused on inquiry and investigation to present a feminist framework for thinking critically about how we document everyday experiences The book begins with an introduction to feminist perspectives their meanings over time and a brief history of feminist ethnography Then the authors examine feminist methodologies answering the question how does one do feminist ethnography and investigates common challenges such as ethical dilemmas and logistical constraints faced during fieldwork Finally Davis and Craven discuss what it means to be a feminist activist ethnographer including advocacy efforts and engagement with public policy and ask students to consider what is your vision for the future of feminist ethnography New to this Edition Six new interviews with feminist ethnographers include reflections on the intersections of trans studies disability studies and the Cite Black Women movement New section on safety accessibility and fieldwork to address the risks all ethnographers face but in particular those who challenge long held assumptions that ethnographers are all white Western able bodied well funded cisgender and usually male Enhanced discussion of virtual ethnography in the wake of COVID 19 Added content on transgender nonbinary experiences and disability studies
