Introduction to Conflict Resolution Sara Cobb,Sarah Federman,Alison Castel,2019-07-02 The field of conflict resolution has evolved dramatically during the relatively short duration of the discipline's existence. Each generation of scholars has struggled with the major puzzles of their era, providing theories and solutions that meet the needs of the time only to be pushed forward by new insights and at times totally upended by a changing world. This introductory course text explores the genealogy of the field of conflict resolution by examining three different epochs of the field, each one tied to the historical context and events of the day. In each of these epochs, scholars and practitioners worked to understand and address the conflicts that the world was facing at that time. This book provides a framework that students will carry with them far into their careers, enriching their contributions and strengthening their voices. Rather than a didactic approach to the field, students will develop their critical analytical skills through an inductive inquiry. Students will broaden their vocabulary, grapple with argumentation, and develop critical reading skills.

Unsustainable Institutions of Men Jeff Hearn, Ernesto Vasquez del Aguila, Marina Hughson, 2018-12-07 How are men, masculinities, and gender power implicated within global institutions? How are global institutions to be understood in terms of men, masculinities, and gender power? What are men up to in such arenas as global finance, corporate law, military intelligence, world sporting bodies, and nationalist politics? Unsustainable Institutions of Men examines men's dealings in transnational processes across the economy, politics, technologies, and bodies. In exploring the men's domination of institutions in national and transnational realms, this volume underpins a novel approach built around multiple dispersed centres of men's power. Indeed, in critical discussions of men and masculinities, there has been a gradual shift in focus from the local, so-called ethnographic moment to a broader view encompassing several dynamics, e.g., global, transnational, international, postcolonial, and the global north-south. Building on this conceptual move, Unsustainable Institutions of Men focuses on pinpointing masculine actions and influences that support and enact transnational processes, disclosing those connections and examining institutional alternatives which could contribute to more inclusive and democratic transnational dialogues. Comprised of a range of international contributions, Unsustainable Institutions of Men will appeal to students, researchers, experts, and activists seeking to understand the deep structural conditions of contemporary globalized threats created by old and new patterns of gender power and transnational patriarchies.

Gender Matters in Global Politics, 2010 Violence, Entitlement, and Politics Steven G. Ogden, 2021-09-30 This book is an exercise in political theology exploring the problem of gender-based violence by focusing on violent male subjects and the issue of entitlement. It addresses gender-based violence in familial and military settings before engaging with a wider political context. The chapters draw on sources ranging from Michel Foucault, Judith Butler, and Étienne Balibar to Rowan Williams and Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza. Entitlement is theorized and interpreted as a gender pattern predisposing subjects towards controlling behaviour and/or violent actions. Steven Ogden develops a theology of transformation stressing immanence. He examines entitled subjects predisposed to violence where transformation requires a limit experience that wrenches the subject from itself. The book then reflects on today's pervasive strongman politics where political rationalities foster proprietorial thinking and entitlement gender patterns and how theology is called to develop counter discourses and counter practices
