Datar, 2010 Missing Engines of Management Education Prasad Sundararajan, S. Shivamayi, 2013-05 From RETHINKING to REDOING This book is a SEQUEL to Rethinking the MBA Business Education at a Crossroads authored by Srikant M Datar David A Garvin and Patrick G Cullen published in 2010 by Harvard Business Press Declaring business education at a crossroads the HBS teachers researchers have proposed rethinking the MBA Hopefully the purpose of such a rethinking might envisage certain possible probable redoing to drive business education out of the crossroads If so if the students are trained to practice at least 30 percent of the concepts ideas methods contained in this book definitely they will imbibe certain extraordinary knowing that empower their driving of whatever knowing doing and being envisioned for them If at all the business schools and management institutes are genuinely concerned beyond trade mentality in rebalancing the knowing and doing and being of the MBA students they may consider the doing of training the students in the doing of emancipating their engines The engine of language sensitizing the students about the statistical nature of language to rediscover their language to see the intentionality of concepts ideas theories etc The engines of intellect training the students in using the framework of Variant Invariant Linkage Network Orbit Setting for the doing of seeing the referents and referred to realities of concepts ideas theories and perspectives people entities things and phenomena The engines of Double Creature Person to develop an original self view world view and existence view Of course all of these are almost entirely new and perhaps original ideas As usual new ideas are vulnerable to rejection especially by the significant ruling powers Yet they are published due to the inspiration from the book Rethinking MBA though they have been verified and found significantly effective with several
