Revisiting Professional Learning Communities at Work® Richard DuFour, Rebecca DuFour, Robert Eaker, Mike Mattos, Anthony Muhammad, 2021-04-09 This new edition of a classic work is written for educators invested in the moral imperative to do what s right for all students The authors work from the mindset that PLC at Work is a continuous process of school improvement The result is a revelation of best practices affirmed by the latest research and a confirmation of the power of the three big ideas and four critical questions of this proven process Learn how to sustain the work of collaborative teams to ensure best practices in instruction assessment intervention and more Discover new ideas and perspectives on school leadership and school culture Delve into greater specificity on what issues Professional Learning Communities at Work can positively impact Learn how to effectively provide extra time and support for students who struggle and extensions for those who have already reached their learning goals Understand what research shows is ineffective for student success and why such practices should be discontinued Contents Introduction Chapter 1 Proven Insights Into Professional Learning Communities at Work Chapter 2 The Case for Professional Learning Communities at Work Chapter 3 The Challenge of Cultural Change Chapter 4 The Four Pillars of a Professional Learning Community Shared Mission Vision Values and Goals Chapter 5 Teaching in a Collaborative Culture Chapter 6 Essential Learning and Assessment in a PLC Chapter 7 Interventions and Extensions in a PLC Chapter 8 The Role of the Principal in a PLC Chapter 9 The Role of the Superintendent and the Central Office in a PLC Chapter 10 How to Sustain the PLC Process Appendix References and Resources

Building a Professional Learning Community at Work TM Parry Graham, William M. Ferriter, 2009-09-22 Get a play by play guide to implementing PLC concepts Each chapter begins with a story focused on a particular challenge A follow up analysis of the story identifies the good decisions or common mistakes made in relation to that particular scenario The authors examine the research behind best practice and wrap up each chapter with recommendations and tools you can use in your school The Creation of a Professional Learning Community for School Leaders Amalia Humada- Ludeke, 2013-09-03 The unwavering culture of continuous improvement efforts to bring about school change has irrevocably changed the role expectations for the school leader The school leader in the 21st century is increasingly perceived as an instructional leader expected to implement whole school reform models that can shape teacher practice and influence student outcomes The significant changes in role expectations for school leaders present considerable challenges to an educational system that was not designed to incorporate these conceptualizations In light of the increased acceptance of changed leadership expectations the elements that are needed for developing supporting and sustaining instructional leaders who can lead systemic change efforts are frequently not present are fragmented or are observed at various developmental stages throughout the PK-20 pipeline This book is centered on the learning and changed behaviors of school leaders who engaged in a sustained job embedded professional learning community facilitated through a university district partnership The learning from the findings suggested that job embedded learning with their peers can be instrumental for these principals to build the capacity to lead systemic change efforts The findings further suggested that creating conditions for new understanding to occur and sustained opportunities to apply new learning in context to their role entailed a collaborative effort by a partnership involving two separate institutions with different priorities The author makes a case for the educational pipeline to prioritize the support and understanding of complex systemic change efforts and innovations as they are linked to school improvement

Reviving Professional Learning Communities Perry P. Wiseman, Hector Arroyo, Nicholas Richter, 2012-12-07 A Professional Learning Community is undeniably one of the most effective processes out there for improving student achievement as well as a school's overarching culture and climate With such widespread notoriety though there has been a dilution of the true essence of the term Understanding of what a Professional Learning Community is varies from one district to another from one school to another even from one educator to another It's about time for a resurrection Reviving Professional Learning Communities does exactly that through the lens of a simple framework called the 4S Approach This new development helps practitioners build thriving learning communities through 1 recognition and validation of each staff member's unique points of view 2 natural conflict that accompanies the assorted viewpoints 3 healthy teamwork and 4 effective systems Sprinkled throughout the book are also 32 practical high leverage strategies that are easy to understand and simple to put into practice right away This book will most certainly help answer the perennial question How do we achieve a genuine Professional Learning Community Global Perspectives on Developing Professional Learning Communities Nicholas Sun-Keung Pang, Ting Wang, 2018-03-13 This book discusses distinctive features of the professional learning community concept practices and processes across six different education systems in the Asia Pacific region namely Mainland China Hong Kong Taiwan South Korea Singapore and the United States It provides a platform for an exchange of different perspectives and offers alternative possibilities of theorizing professional learning communities across different socio cultural contexts Contributors provide valuable insights for policy makers education researchers and educators in the Asia Pacific region and elsewhere to deal with critical questions about the improvement of teaching and learning and school improvement in a globalizing world This book was originally published as a special issue of the Asia Pacific Journal of Education
