Revolutionary Suicide Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition:

Revolutionary Suicide Huey P. Newton, 2009-09-29 The searing visionary memoir of founding Black Panther Huey P. Newton in a dazzling graphic package Tracing the birth of a revolutionary Huey P. Newton's famous and oft-quoted autobiography is as much a manifesto as a portrait of the inner circle of America's Black Panther Party From Newton's impoverished childhood on the streets of Oakland to his adolescence and struggles with the system from his role in the Black Panthers to his solitary confinement in the Alameda County Jail Revolutionary Suicide is unrepentant and thought-provoking in its portrayal of inspired radicalism For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world With more than 1,700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators

Insurrectionist Ethics Jacoby Adeshei Carter, Darryl Scriven, 2023-04-19 Insurrectionist Ethics is the name given to denote the myriad forms of justification for radical social transformation in the interest of freedom for oppressed people It is a set of advocacy systems that usually aim at liberation for specified populations under siege in a given society While the identities of these beleaguered groups is always intersectional one salient criterion of group membership is often chosen to be the rallying point for solidarity Whether the movement is Black Lives Matter, Gay Pride, or Poor People's Campaign at the nucleus of each is a cry for emancipation The contributions in this volume put forward bold, forcefully argued, provocative claims that challenge in a fundamental and radical way the presuppositions, values, and beliefs that underwrite the systems and structures that insurrectionist ethics calls into question The volume begins with a section defining and theorizing what insurrectionist ethics is and then moves to a section studying insurrectionist ethics across the Americas Additional sections focus on applications of and correctives to insurrectionist ethics, pragmatism and naturalism, and the past, present, and future of insurrectionist ethics

Teaching Black Ana-Maurine Lara, Drea Brown, 2021-12-14 Teaching Black: The Craft of Teaching on Black Life and Literature presents the experiences and voices of Black creative writers who are also teachers The authors in this collection engage poetry, fiction, experimental literature, playwriting, and literary criticism They provide historical and theoretical interventions and practical advice for teachers and students of literature and craft Contributors work in high schools, colleges, and community settings and draw from these rich contexts in their essays This book is an invaluable tool for teachers, practitioners, change agents, and presses Teaching Black is for any and all who are interested in incorporating Black literature and conversations on Black literary craft into their own work

The Horror of Police Travis Linnemann, 2022-09-06 Unmasks the horrors of a social order reproduced and maintained by the violence of police Year after year the crisis churns: graft and corruption, violence and murder, riot cops and armored vehicles claim city streets Despite promises of reform, police operate with impunity, unaccountable to law In The

Horror of Police Travis Linnemann asks why with this open record of violence and corruption policing remains for so many the best perhaps only means of security in an insecure world Drawing on the language and texts of horror fiction Linnemann recasts the police not only as self proclaimed monster fighters but as monsters themselves a terrifying force set loose in the world Purposefully misreading a collection of everyday police stories TV cop dramas detective fiction news media accounts the direct words of police not as morality tales of innocence avenged and order restored but as horror Linnemann reveals the monstrous violence at the heart of liberal social order The Horror of Police shows that police violence is not a deviation but rather a deliberate and permanent fixture of U S law and order Only when viewed through the refracted motif of horror stories Linnemann argues can we begin to reckon the limits of police and imagine a world without them Creating and

Sustaining Effective K-12 School Partnerships Ahmad R. Washington,Ramon B. Goings,Malik S. Henfield,2020-03-01 Although teachers school counselors and administrators are all situated within educational settings tasked with supporting students educational development rarely do these professionals have sufficient opportunities to learn from and collaborate with one another before entering these schools Unfortunately many of these professionals are unaware of the primary and secondary responsibilities their peers and colleagues assume What s worse this lack of insight potentially compromises the extent to which educational leaders can forge effective partnerships that benefit students from the most alienated disenfranchised and marginalized communities e g Black children in under resourced schools While the educational discourse has included recommendations for maximizing interactions between these educational professionals the collective voices of teachers school counselors and administrators in regards to these issues has not been adequately examined Thus this book is a compilation of manuscripts and studies that explore partnerships and strategies educators and educational leaders use to produce positive socio educational outcomes for Black students in various contexts Creating and Sustaining Effective K 12 School Partnerships Firsthand Accounts of Promising Practices is unique because it illuminates examples of effective school community partnerships that foster positive student outcomes Creating and Sustaining Effective K 12 School Partnerships Firsthand Accounts of Promising Practices is intended as a practical text for committed educational leaders at different professional points e g practicing teachers pre service school counselors and teachers who are eager to transform the current educational trajectory of Black children through interventions that show promise A Recipe for Gentrification Alison Hope Alkon,Yuki Kato,Joshua Sbicca,2020-07-14 Honorable Mention 2021 Edited Collection Book Award given by the Association for the Study of Food and Society How gentrification uproots the urban food landscape and what activists are doing to resist it From hipster coffee shops to upscale restaurants a bustling local food scene is perhaps the most commonly recognized harbinger of gentrification A Recipe for Gentrification explores this widespread phenomenon showing the ways in which food and gentrification are deeply and at times controversially intertwined Contributors provide an inside look at gentrification in different cities from major hubs like New York and Los Angeles to smaller cities like Cleveland and Durham

They examine a wide range of food enterprises including grocery stores restaurants community gardens and farmers markets to provide up to date perspectives on why gentrification takes place and how communities use food to push back against displacement Ultimately they unpack the consequences for vulnerable people and neighborhoods A Recipe for Gentrification highlights how the everyday practices of growing purchasing and eating food reflect the rapid and contentious changes taking place in American cities in the twenty first century Travel and the Pan African Imagination Tracy Keith Flemming,2021-09-02 Travel and the Pan African Imagination explores the African Atlantic world as a productive theater or space where modernity racialized dominance and racialized resistance took form The book stresses the importance of placing three Atlantic figures the Charleston South Carolina based armed resistance leader Denmark Vesey the West African emigration advocate Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Christian missionary and teacher in Liberia as well as the United States Alexander Crummell within an Atlantic context and as African world community figures between the late eighteenth and early twentieth centuries The book also examines the religious origins of Black Power ideology and modern Pan Africanism as products of the intense dialogue within the African world community about concepts of modernity progress and civilization Tracy Keith Flemming identifies how travel and social mobility led to the generation of an ever more complex and dynamic Atlantic world and of a fluid and adaptive African world community imagination for those figures who were forced to operate within and against a racially framed universe The vexing social position and symbolic figure of the African was central to the dilemmas facing the racialized imagination of African world community figures and the discipline of Africology

Necropolitics Christophe D. Ringer,2020-11-17 Necropolitics The Religious Crisis of Mass Incarceration in America explores the pernicious and persistent presence of mass incarceration in American public life Christophe D Ringer argues that mass incarceration persists largely because the othering and criminalization of Black people in times of crisis is a significant part of the religious meaning of America This book traces representations from the Puritan era to the beginning of the War on Drugs in the 1980s to demonstrate their centrality in this issue revealing how these images have become accepted as fact and used by various aspects of governance to wield the power to punish indiscriminately Ringer demonstrates how these vilifying images contribute to racism and political economy creating a politics of death that uses jails and prisons to conceal social inequalities and political exclusion The Philosophy of Environmental Emotions Ondřej Beran,Laura Candiottio,Niklas Forsberg,Antony Fredriksson,David Rozen,2024-12-09 This volume presents new philosophical perspectives on environmental emotions It explores the motivating nature of emotions such as anger grief and hope in relation to the current climate crisis Many of our emotional responses to the climate crisis take a distressed form like anxiety despair or grief However these emotions almost always coexist with hope a drive toward action or a strengthened sense of relationality and belonging This book explores the different levels at which these tensions take place Part I discusses the conceptual and linguistic notions we use to make sense of our ecological predicament Part II looks at the embedded dimension of our emotions how we feel about the climate crisis as members of our communities and how our emotions are interconnected with what we do and how we work in and for our communities Several chapters in this section explicitly discuss hope Finally Part III has a phenomenological and existential focus it explores the nature of the rootedness and how it shapes our emotional experiences during the climate crisis The Philosophy of Environmental Emotions will appeal to scholars and graduate students working in environmental philosophy philosophy of emotion and environmental psychology

Civic Education in Polarized Times Elizabeth Beaumont, Eric Beerbohm, 2024-07-23 Reveals the possibilities and challenges of civic education in circumstances of extreme polarization and how civic learning and political divisiveness can interact and influence each other As fears about polarization and its contribution to democratic crisis and corrosion rise many people have posited civic education as a possible remedy In a time of increasing political polarization what should the goals of civic education be and how should they be implemented In the latest installment of the NOMOS series Eric Beerbohm and Elizabeth Beaumont bring together a distinguished group of interdisciplinary scholars across philosophy politics and law inviting us to think deeply about the complex promises and pitfalls of civic education Contributors raise a variety of crucial considerations not only about how to educate citizens in a polarized era but also for a polarized era What types of civic learning hold promise for preparing students to navigate their way through a political landscape of escalating hostile factions distrust truth decay and disagreement about basic facts Could or should civic education attempt to reduce or counteract polarization or should it focus on other aims Beaumont and Beerbohm show us that the dynamics and circumstances of polarization do not stop at the schoolhouse gates but bring new urgency together with added pressures and constraints to all civic education As political polarization continues to intensify across the globe this riveting volume illuminates the significance the possibilities and the challenges of civic education in the contemporary era
