Muslim Cosmopolitanism In The Age Of Empire:

Muslim Cosmopolitanism in the Age of Empire Seema Alavi, 2015-04-06 Seema Alavi challenges the idea that all pan Islamic configurations are anti Western or pro Caliphate A pan Islamic intellectual network at the cusp of the British and Ottoman empires became the basis of a global Muslim sensibility a political and cultural affiliation that competes with ideas of nationhood today as it did in the last century Reimagining Digital Cosmopolitanism Fergal Lenehan, Roman Lietz, 2025-02-08 Cosmopolitanism remains a multifaceted widely used concept Cultural theory and empirical research have not remained stagnant and a number of further theoretical and empirically based concepts have emerged not least postdigitality and postmigrancy The post in these terms does not denote an end but rather societal transformation due to and interwoven with both digitality and migration The contributors to this volume call for new perspectives on the concept of cosmopolitanism in the light of postdigitality and postmigrancy The contributions reflect on a theoretical and an empirical level the need to reimagine cosmopolitanism for the twenty first century Empire Unbound Gavin Murray-Miller, 2022-05-12 European empires were commonly depicted in bright color coded maps printed during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that conveyed the expanse of European power across the globe Despite this familiar image of a world divided up into neat imperial enclaves the reality of empire building often told a different story Empire Unbound argues that European empires were never the bounded stable entities that imperialists imagined In examining Mediterranean empire building in a comparative context Gavin Murray Miller demonstrates that the era of new imperialism which arose in the late nineteenth century fostered connections and synergies between regional powers that influenced the trajectories of imperial states in fundamental ways Breaking with conventional national approaches Murray Miller traces the development of France s North African empire noting how empire building relied upon transnational networks and cooperation with Muslims elites across borders just as much as military conquest By looking at the inter connected relationships linking the French British Italian and Ottoman empires from the 1880s through the First World War Empire Unbound proposes a novel spatial framework for imperial studies showing how migrations extraterritorial legal regimes and cross border interactions both abetted and frustrated imperial designs at the turn of the century Mapping out the Rushdie Republic Prasanta Bhattacharyya, Tapan Kumar Ghosh, 2016-12-14 Mapping out the Rushdie Republic differs from existing studies on the work of Salman Rushdie by dint of its seriousness of intent and profundity of content Every major work of the writer is paid due attention as separate articles are devoted to every aspect of his literary persona As such the contributions raise pertinent issues and questions that invite the perceptive reader to enter into a meaningful dialogue with the views of a range of formidable academics of national and international repute A long interview with Timothy Brennan a notable Rushdie critic offers further insights making this a book that designedly stops short of being merely encomiastic about Rushdie s achievement as an author The significant act of mapping out the Rushdie republic makes this a must read for those who find the Rushdie phenomenon an interesting one as part of ongoing debates and discussions Oceanic Islam

,2020-05-31 The Indian Ocean interregional arena is a space of vital economic and strategic importance characterized by specialized flows of capital and labor skills and services and ideas and culture Islam in particular and religiously informed universalism in general once signified cosmopolitanism across this wide realm This historical reality is at variance with contemporary conceptions of Islam as an illiberal religion that breeds intolerance and terrorism The future balance of global power will be determined in large measure by policies of key actors in the Indian Ocean and the lands that abut it rather than in the Atlantic or the Pacific The interplay of multiple and competing universalisms in the Indian Ocean arena is in urgent need of better understanding Oceanic Islam Muslim Universalism and European Imperialism is a fresh contribution to Islamic and Indian Ocean studies alike placing the history of modern South Asia in broader interregional and global contexts It refines theories of universalism and cosmopolitanism while at the same time drawing on new empirical research The essays in the volume bring the best academic scholarship on Islam in South Asia and across the Indian Ocean in the age of European empire to the readers Muslims and Citizens Ian Coller,2020-03-20 A groundbreaking study of the role of Muslims in eighteenth century France This elegant braided history of Muslims and French citizenship is urgently needed It will be a must read for students of the French Revolution and anyone interested in modern France Carla Hesse University of California Berkeley From the beginning French revolutionaries imagined their transformation as a universal one that must include Muslims Europe's most immediate neighbors They believed in a world in which Muslims could and would be French citizens but they disagreed violently about how to implement their visions of universalism and accommodate religious and social difference Muslims too saw an opportunity particularly as European powers turned against the new French Republic leaving the Muslim polities of the Middle East and North Africa as France's only friends in the region In Muslims and Citizens Coller examines how Muslims came to participate in the political struggles of the revolution and how revolutionaries used Muslims in France and beyond as a test case for their ideals In his final chapter Coller reveals how the French Revolution's fascination with the Muslim world paved the way to Napoleon's disastrous invasion of Egypt in 1798 Making a Muslim S. Akbar Zaidi,2021-09-30 Using primarily Urdu sources from the nineteenth century this book allows us to rethink notions of the Muslim in its numerous complex and often contradictory forms which emerged in colonial North India after 1857 Allowing the self representation of Muslimness and its manifestations to emerge it contrasts how the colonial British made Muslims very differently compared to how the community envisaged themselves A key argument made here contests the general sense of the narrative of lamentation decay decline and a sense of self pity and ruination by proposing a different condition that of zillat a condition which gave rise to much self reflection resulting in action even if it was in the form of writing and expression By questioning how and when a Muslim community emerged in colonial India the book unsettles the teleological explanation of the Partition of India and the making of Pakistan Revival from Below Brannon D.

Ingram,2018-11-21 The Deoband movement a revivalist movement within Sunni Islam that quickly spread from colonial India to Pakistan Afghanistan Bangladesh and even the United Kingdom and South Africa has been poorly understood and sometimes feared Despite being one of the most influential Muslim revivalist movements of the last two centuries Deoband's connections to the Taliban have dominated the attention it has received from scholars and policy makers alike Revival from Below offers an important corrective reorienting our understanding of Deoband around its global reach which has profoundly shaped the movement's history In particular the author tracks the origins of Deoband's controversial critique of Sufism how this critique travelled through Deobandi networks to South Africa as well as the movement's efforts to keep traditionally educated Islamic scholars ulama at the center of Muslim public life The result is a nuanced account of this global religious network that argues we cannot fully understand Deoband without understanding the complex modalities through which it spread beyond South Asia

Hajj across Empires Rishad Choudhury,2024-02-08 Rishad Choudhury presents a new history of imperial connections across the Indian Ocean from 1739 to 1857 a period that witnessed the decline and collapse of Mughal rule and the consolidation of British colonialism in South Asia In this highly original and comprehensive study he reveals how the hajj pilgrimage significantly transformed Muslim political culture and colonial attitudes towards it creating new ideas of religion and rule Examining links between the Indian Subcontinent and the Ottoman Middle East through multilingual sources from first hand accounts to administrative archives of hajj Choudhury uncovers a striking array of pilgrims who leveraged their experiences and exchanges abroad to address the decline and decentralization of an Islamic old regime at home Hajjis crucially mediated the birth of modern Muslim political traditions around South Asia Hajj across Empires argues they did so by channeling inter imperial crosscurrents to successive surges of imperial revolution and regional regime change

Muslim Europe Gavin Murray-Miller,2024-12-15 Europe and the Islamic world have shared a long and conflicted history From the Middle Ages to the global War on Terror the image of two civilizations perpetually at war has endured However a closer look at the past suggests this was not always the case Muslim Europe follows the lives of imperialists journalists and Muslim activists who attempted to challenge the idea of two opposing civilizations locked in eternal conflict Rich in detail it tells the stories of English officials who once declared Britain the greatest Muslim power on the face of the earth and recounts the extraordinary political campaign that saw a French Muslim elected to the National Assembly against all odds The age of empire brought Islam into European public life like never before inspiring Muslims on the continent to take to the press and mount political movements guided by desires for greater social recognition In chronicling the forgotten history of Europe's early Muslim communities across empires Muslim Europe proposes a new history for Europe highlighting the contributions made by Muslim subjects and citizens in search of a more just and tolerant society
