Muslim Women Throughout The World A Bibliography:

Muslim Women Throughout the World Michelle Kimball, B. R. Von Schlegell, 1997-01-01 This bibliography covers about 3000 English language books and articles published in the 1990-1995 period on women in the Muslim world. Works are listed alphabetically by author with an index including both geographical and topical headings. It includes an annotated Top 50 list.

Inscribing South Asian Muslim Women Tahera Aftab, 2008 Offers an annotated source for the study of the public and private lives of South Asian Muslim women. Women, Patronage, and Self-Representation in Islamic Societies D. Fairchild Ruggles, 2000-08-03 The first to combine the study of representation, gender theory, and Muslim women from a historical and geographical perspective, this book examines where women have represented themselves in art, architecture, and the written word in the Muslim world. The authors explore the gendering and implicit power relations present in the positioning of subject and object in the visual field and look specifically at occasions when women publicly adopted the stance of the viewer, speaker, writer, or patron. Contributors include Ellison Banks Findly, Elizabeth Brown Frierson, Salah M. Hassan, Nancy Micklewright, Leslie Peirce, Kishwar Rizvi, D. Fairchild Ruggles, Yasser Tabbaa, Lucienne Thys-Seno, Ak and Ethel Sara Wolper.

Women's Lives around the World Susan M. Shaw, Nancy Staton Barbour, Patti Duncan Ph.D., Kryn Freehling-Burton Ph.D., Jane Nichols, 2018-01-04 Providing an in-depth look at the lives of women and girls in approximately 150 countries, this multivolume reference set offers readers transnational and postcolonial analysis of the many issues that are critical to the success of women and girls. For millennia, women around the world have shouldered the responsibility of caring for their families. But in recent decades, women have emerged as a major part of the global workforce, balancing careers and family life. How did this change happen? And how are societies in developing countries responding and adapting to women's newer roles in society? This four-volume encyclopedia examines the lives of women around the world with coverage that includes the education of girls and teens, the key roles women play in their families, careers, religions, and cultures, how issues for women intersect with colonialism, transnationalism, feminism, and established norms of power and control. Organized geographically, each volume presents detailed entries about the lives of women in particular countries. Additionally, each volume offers sidebars that spotlight topics related to women and girls in specific regions or focus on individual women's lives and contributions. Primary source documents include sections of countries' constitutions that are relevant to women and girls, United Nations resolutions and national resolutions regarding women and girls, and religious statements and proclamations about women and girls. The organization of the set enables readers to take an in-depth look at individual countries as well as to make comparisons across countries. Women of Kurdistan: A Historical and Bibliographic Study Shahrzad Mojab, Amir Hassanpour, 2021-04-19 Women of Kurdistan: A Historical and Bibliographic Study documents a century-long history of Kurdish women's struggles against oppressive gender relations and state violence. It speaks to bibliographic silences on Kurdish women's silences that are systemic and structured with many factors contributing to their reproduction. The book records extensive literature on violence perpetrated by the family community and the state as well as presenting the reader with a vibrant archive of resistance and struggle of Kurdish women The analysis avoids the fashionable state centered scholarship which purifies processes of nation building state building and disguises their violence The image depicted of the women of Kurdistan in this bibliography is shaped also by the languages we have chosen English French and German It is a record of material in languages that are not spoken by the majority of the Kurds It will therefore be different from a bibliography of works in the Kurdish language which have a majority of Kurdish authors with more entries on topics such as poetry fiction education and arts Love and learning made the making of this bibliography imaginable It began more than 20 years ago when Amir was expanding his theoretical ground for class analysis of nationalism and peasant movement in the Kurdish region of Mukriyan Hassanpour 2021 Simultaneously I was engaged with debates on Marxist feminism and transnational feminism while grappling with post al tendencies in feminism such as post colonialism post structuralism and post modernism We wanted to better understand the explanatory power and political implications of Marx s dialectical historical materialism in explicating the intersecting and refracting relations of gender class race culture nation and nationalism This commitment nonetheless did not remain in the realm of epistemology as a disembodied intellectual exercise As a member of a dominant nation a Shirazi born Iranian I wanted to critically confront this national identity and the sense of belonging Amir sought to scrutinize patriarchal structures and gender relations in Kurdish history society culture and nation This intertwined mind and heart desire put us onto a path of renewed discoveries of our personal and intellectual relations In a nutshell this was the beginning of the making of Women of Kurdistan A Historical and Bibliographic Study Women of Kurdistan provides a meticulously researched source book for readers interested in women gender and sexuality in Kurdistan and the Middle East It covers a wealth of bibliographic material including both scholarly and non academic publications many of which have not previously been accessible to broader audiences But Women of Kurdistan is more than a source of information It is also an eloquent reflection on the entanglement of knowledge production and political power and a call to recognize scholarship s potential in shaping historical change Above all it is a passionate statement about the impossibility to comprehend the intersection of colonial capitalist and nationalist forces without attention to women s lives and struggles Marlene Sch fers British Academy Newton International Fellow University of Cambridge Women of Kurdistan is simply an excellent template for how to chronicle women s resistance politics By framing the Kurdish women s struggles within a historical materialism under different modes of production and discussing the political influence of five different nations on the Kurdish peoples the authors offer a rich context that surpasses the common fetishization of women s armed resistance Internationally known for their Marxist and feminist works Mojab and Hassanpour apply theories of nationalism capitalism peasantry knowledge production and relationship between state and non state to understand the Kurdish experience while honouring the struggle voice and poetry of Kurdish women activists The book is as unapologetically critical of regional and religious hegemonies as it is of Kurdish patriarchies and is candid about the slipperiness of the concept of the ideal Kurdish woman while skeptical of the benefits of transnationalization for the women honoured in this book Afiya Zia author of Faith and Feminism Religious Agency or Secular Autonomy
