Second Track Citizens Diplomacy Concepts And Techniques For Conflict Transformation 2003 07 01:

Second Track Citizens' Diplomacy John L. Davies, Edward (Edy) Kaufman, 2003-05-06 Almost all current wars are primarily intra state involving complex societal conflicts with at least one party a non state community Second Track Citizens Diplomacy is broadly defined as facilitated dialogue to address conflict issues between unofficial representatives or equivalent opinion leaders from communities in conflict It is an essential complement to official first track diplomacy for responding to the enormous challenge that these complex conflicts pose to building a sustainable and dynamic peace In this volume prominent contributors explain the development theory and current practice of second track diplomacy They examine the dynamics of modern complex conflicts such as those in Sri Lanka Israel Palestine Cyprus or the Caucasus Exploring innovative problem solving methodologies the book provides a detailed program for guiding Partners in Conflict in the search for common ground and analyzes core issues that arise in the practice and evaluation of second track diplomacy This book will be valuable to both academics and professionals involved in first or second track diplomacy or interested in integrative methods of dispute resolution or conflict prevention as well as to those working in development peace building or humanitarian programs at any phase of the conflict cycle

A Possible Peace Between Israel and Palestine Menachem Klein, 2007-09-21 In 2003 after two years of negotiations a group of prominent Israelis and Palestinians signed a model peace treaty The document popularly called the Geneva Initiative contained detailed provisions resolving all outstanding issues between Israel and the Palestinian people including drawing a border between Israel and Palestine dividing Jerusalem and determining the status of the Palestinian refugees The negotiators presented this citizens initiative to the Israeli and Palestinian peoples and urged them to accept it One of the Israeli negotiators was Menachem Klein a political scientist who has written extensively about the Jerusalem issue in the context of peace negotiations Although the Geneva Initiative was not endorsed by the governments of either side it became a fundamental term of reference for solving the Middle East conflict In this firsthand account Klein explains how and why these groups were able to achieve agreement He directly addresses the formation of the Israeli and Palestinian teams how they managed their negotiations and their communications with both governments He also discusses the role of third party facilitators and the strategy behind marketing the Geneva Initiative to the public A scholar and participant in the Geneva negotiations Klein is able to provide both an inside perspective and an impartial analysis of the diplomatic efforts behind this historic compromise He compares the negotiations to previous Israeli Palestinian talks both formal and informal and the resolution of conflicts in South Africa and Algeria Klein hopes that by treating the event as a case study we can learn a tremendous amount about the needs and approaches of both parties and the necessary shape peace must take between them

Positive Peace in Theory and Practice Tuba Turan, 2015-10-20 Examining the shortcomings of eliciting sustainable intra state peace through the UN system and the underlying positive peace paradigm of the liberal traditions the book maintains that a novel positive peace vision and framework under the auspices of the UN is warranted Building upon grievance based explanations of violent conflicts and conflict transformation research this book develops a comprehensive positive peace framework that involves the early tackling of identity divisions i.e. Fundamental Conflicts through UN facilitated deliberative and dialogical processes at the 1.5 track diplomacy level This framework is designed to complement current UN post conflict peacebuilding and structural prevention practice By dealing both with how to operationalise early conflict prevention in a workable manner and developing a comprehensive yet viable positive peace approach this book entails an extensive interdisciplinary approach and new in depth analyses of the wide ranging normative and policy aspects of the quest of elevating positive peace to a core objective of UN practice The Handbook of Practice and Research in Study Abroad Ross Lewin, 2010-11-24 Co published with the Association for American Colleges and Universities AACU If we are all becoming global citizens what then are our civic responsibilities Colleges and universities across the United States have responded to this question by making the development of global citizens part of their core mission A key strategy for realizing this goal is study abroad After all there may be no better way for students to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes required to become effective change agents in international contexts The Handbook of Practice and Research in Study Abroad is a comprehensive survey of the field Each chapter eloquently conveys an enthusiasm for study abroad alongside a critical assessment of the most up to date research theory and practice This contributed volume brings together expert academics senior administrators practitioners of study abroad and policy makers from across the United States Canada and other part of the world who meticulously address the following questions What do we mean by global citizenship and global competence What are the philosophical pedagogical and practical challenges facing institutions as they endeavor to create global citizens How is study abroad and global citizenship compatible with the role of the academy What are the institutional challenges to study abroad including those related to ethics infrastructure finances accessibility and quality control Which study abroad programs can be called successful The Handbook of Practice and Research in Study Abroad is an indispensable reference volume for scholars higher education faculty study abroad professionals policy makers and the academic libraries that serve these audiences It is also appropriate for a wide range of courses in Higher Education Master's and Ph.D. Programs Religion and Public Policy Sumner B. Twiss, Marian Gh. Simion, Rodney L. Petersen, 2015-02-26 Examines human rights in relation to religion and the role of religion in perennial issues of war and peace Resolving Water Conflicts Workbook Lynette de Silva, Chris Maser, 2021-11-25 This book works to build trust consensus and capacity to enhance understanding through a water conflict management framework designed to bolster collaborative skills Built on case studies analysis and hands on real life applications it addresses issues of water insecurity of marginalized systems and communities global water viability institutional resilience and the inclusion of faith based traditions for climate action The authors assess the complexities of climate challenges and explain how to create sustainable effective and efficient water approaches for an improved ecological and socioeconomic future within the UN s Sustainable Development Goals Paving the Way Ronald J. Fisher,2005-01-04 This first of a kind collection brings together in one volume the strongest available evidence of successful transfer effects from unofficial third party work to official peacemaking Using comparative case analysis from several real world interventions Paving the Way offers insights into the conditions and qualities of successful programs of interactive conflict resolution from experts in the field Editor Ronald J Fisher has assembled a collection of seminal case studies that illustrate interactive approaches to conflict resolution from the Malaysia Indonesia conflict in the 1960s to the Peru Equador peace process of the late 1990s Integrating theory research and practice the cases posit that interactive conflict resolution can make a significant and sometimes essential contribution to the resolution of protracted and violent identity conflicts The methods and solutions offered in Paving the Way will serve as best practices for those in the field and as training tools and resources for scholars and policymakers Territoriality, Citizenship and Peacebuilding Kelechi A. Kalu,2013-06-29 Civil conflicts in Africa range from few interstate wars to several intrastate conflicts characterized by secessionist movements irredentism coups and counter coups genocide wars of liberation to resource based wars The varied causes of conflicts in the continent s diverse and complex social formations are seen in ethnic terms and include struggles for economic environmental resources poor institutions of governance and issues of identity such as religion language and racial differences The core issue addressed in this volume is how to understand and explain the structural and analytical reasons for persistent civil conflicts in Africa The core assumption is that most civil conflicts in Africa erupt largely because of the nature of state formation in the continent Other significant variables that are explored as explanations for the persistent instances of civil conflicts in sub Saharan Africa and the slow efforts at nation building across the continent include issues of territoriality climate change ethnicity ideological incongruities institutional problems the nature of postcolonial state unreformed governance and economic structures and corruption This book also examines some sources of unresolved issues of territoriality and explains their connections to political violence and socio political and cultural tensions across sub Saharan Africa It offers suggestions on how scholarly research and policies could help mediate if not mitigate future territorially based conflicts in Africa Peacebuilding, Memory and Reconciliation Bruno Charbonneau, Genevieve Parent,2013-06-17 This book aims to bridge the gap between what are generally referred to as top down and bottom up approaches to peacebuilding After the experience of a physical and psychological trauma the period of individual healing and recovery is intertwined with political and social reconciliation The prospects for social and political reconciliation are undermined when a top down approach is favoured over the bottom up strategy the prioritization of structural stability over societal well being Peacebuilding Memory and Reconciliation explores the inextricable link between psychological recovery and socio political reconciliation and the political issues that dominate this relationship Through an examination of the construction of social narratives about or for peace the text offers a new perspective on peacebuilding which challenges and questions the very nature of the dichotomy between top down and bottom up approaches This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies social psychology political science and IR in general
