The William and Mary Girl Diana Strelow,2009-07-17 You cant get there from here Not any more No road exists today to take you to take anyone anywhere near the place where the awful things happened The reason no one can go there though is that its no longer there the ostensibly happy and naive the joyfully prosperous world that was America in the late 1950s and early 1960s Id made a life in that world living in it was for me for a long time incredibly good But one day everything I loved and believed in and counted on became something more horrible even than I remembered happening years before what happened to my life now would take years to overcome When I was thirteen my father in almost every way an intelligent kind sensitive man found himself gratifying my mothers rage I had talked back angrily to one or both of them I was not a beautiful child I knew that and hated it And later Id know that Mama wanted no ugly duckling in her life I loved Mama but what she couldnt feel for me was clear Too often a terrible scene would begin to play itself out insane angry violence would again overwhelm me demolishing everything I was Id feel it for the rest of the day and the night as well And as Daddy imparted his rage to me to my life itself my own anger would rise to meet it the scenes that took place at our house were terrible And later the halting painful always slow climb up the stairs to bed was always more of an ordeal than I could bear to face And I was sure that with every blow my father administered as he swung again and again at my head that my life had already been ruined that I could never overcome what had been happening Although for years I hoped I was wrong about that and I did my best and continued to hope
