Palgrave Advances In Peacebuilding Critical Developments And Approaches:

Palgrave Advances in Peacebuilding O. Richmond, 2010-01-20 The quality of the peace arrived at via liberal peacebuilding approaches has been poor The related statebuilding praxis has generally been unable to respond to its critics What is at stake is a recognition of peacebuilding's everyday political social economic and cultural dynamics This indicates the emergence of a post liberal form of peace The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies Oliver P. Richmond, Gëzim Visoka, 2022-06-21 This encyclopaedia provides a comprehensive overview of major theories and approaches to the study of peace and conflict across different humanities and social sciences disciplines Peace and conflict studies PCS is one of the major sub disciplines of international studies including political science and international relations and has emerged from a need to understand war related systems and concepts and how to respond to it afterward As a living reference work easily discoverable and searchable the Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies offers solid material for understanding the foundational historical and contemporary themes concepts theories events organisations and frameworks concerning peace conflict security rights institutions and development The Palgrave Encyclopaedia of Peace and Conflict Studies brings together leading and emerging scholars from different disciplines to provide the most comprehensive and up to date resource on peace and conflict studies ever produced Critical Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies

Thomas Matyók, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2011-05-19 Peace and Conflict Studies PCS includes scholars and practitioners throughout the world working in peace studies conflict analysis and resolution conflict management appropriate dispute resolution and peace and justice studies They come to the PCS field with a diversity of ideas approaches disciplinary roots and topic areas which speaks to the complexity breadth and depth needed to apply and take account of conflict dynamics and the goal of peace Yet a number of key concerns and dilemmas continue to challenge the field Critical Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies Theory Practice and Pedagogy edited by Thomas Maty k Jessica Senehi and Sean Byrne is a collection of essays that explores a number of these issues providing a means by which academics students and practitioners can develop various methods to confront the complexity of contemporary conflicts Critical Issues in Peace and Conflict Studies discusses the emerging field of PCS and suggests a framework for the future development of the field and the education of its practitioners and academics The book has a wide audience targeting students at the undergraduate graduate and post graduate levels It also extends to those working in and leading community conflict resolution efforts as well as humanitarian aid workers

Theatre for Peacebuilding Nilanjana Premaratna, 2018-05-05 This book contributes to key debates in peacebuilding by exploring the role of theatre and art in general Premaratna argues that the dialogical and multi voiced nature of theatre is particularly suited to assisting societies coming to terms with conflict and opening up possibilities for conversation These are important parts of the peacebuilding process The book engages the conceptual links between theatre and peacebuilding and then offers an in depth empirical exploration of how three South Asian theatre groups approach peacebuilding Jana Karaliya in Sri Lanka Jana Sanskriti in India and Sarwanam in Nepal The ensuing reflections offer insights that are relevant to both students and practitioners concerned with issues of peace and conflict

Regional Cooperation for Peace and Development Brendan Howe, 2018-11-09 Faced with significant security challenges in recent years Japan and South Korea have both sought to raise their international profile through peacebuilding development humanitarian assistance and human security This book assesses the past present and future potential of these niche diplomacy initiatives undertaken by Japan and South Korea largely in Southeast Asia The book concludes that not only do such nontraditional security channels have the potential to achieve meaningful change for partners and beneficiaries but they could also form the basis of future confidence building and security cooperation between Japan and South Korea which have to date achieved little in the field of traditional security cooperation despite facing many shared challenges Working across disciplines and national boundaries the contributors to this volume argue that policy prioritization in the fields of peacebuilding development and human security by Tokyo and Seoul could have the potential to accrue wider benefits not only to the Northeast Asian actors and the Southeast Asian partners but also to wider regional and even global security communities At a time when the role of so called middle powers is receiving increasing levels of attention both domestically and internationally this book will be of considerable interest to scholars of Japan and the ROK as well as development security and foreign policy researchers more broadly

Visions of Peace of Professional Peace Workers Gijsbert M. van Iterson Scholten, 2019-10-11 This book explores the meaning of peace according to some of the people who make it Based on some 200 interviews it empirically studies the visions of peace that professional peaceworkers from the Netherlands Lebanon and Mindanao Philippines are working on As such it seeks to add a strong empirical element to the debate on liberal peacebuilding The main argument of the book is that amongst practitioners there is no liberal peace consensus at all Rather peace professionals work on a distinct set of peaces that differ along four dimensions In five case study chapters the operational visions of peace held by Dutch military officers diplomats and civil society peace workers as well as civil society peace workers from Lebanon and the Philippines are explored and compared to each other Differences are observed along both geographical and professional lines but also within each group

Handbook of International Security and Development Paul Jackson, 2015-02-27 Providing a comprehensive introduction to the literature and approaches used in the field this illustrious Handbook explores and interrogates the link between security and development at a global level whilst offering a broad survey of current thinkin

Peacebuilding and the Arts Jolyon Mitchell, Giselle Vincett, Theodora Hawksley, Hal Culbertson, 2019-11-19 Ending violent conflict requires societies to take leaps of political imagination Artistic communities are often uniquely placed to help promote new thinking by enabling people to see things differently In place of conflict s binary divisions artists are often charged with exploring the ambiguities and possibilities of the excluded middle Yet their role in peacebuilding remains little explored This excellent and agenda setting volume provides a ground breaking look at a range of artistic practices and the ways in which they have attempted to support peacebuilding a must read for all practitioners and policy makers and indeed other peacemakers looking for inspiration Professor Christine Bell FBA Professor of Constitutional Law Assistant Principal Global Justice and co director of the Global Justice Academy The University of Edinburgh UK Peacebuilding and the Arts offers an impressive and impressively comprehensive engagement with the role that visual art music literature film and theatre play in building peaceful and just societies Without idealizing the role of the arts the authors explore their potential and limits in a wide range of cases from Korea Cambodia Colombia and Northern Ireland to Uganda Rwanda South Africa and Israel Palestine Roland Bleiker Professor of International Relations University of Queensland Australia and author of Aesthetics and World Politics and Visual Global Politics Peacebuilding and the Arts is the first publication to focus critically and comprehensively on the relations between the creative arts and peacebuilding expanding the conventional boundaries of peacebuilding and conflict transformation to include the artist actor poet novelist dramatist musician dancer and film director The sections on the visual arts music literature film and theatre include case studies from very different cultures contexts and settings but a central theme is that the creative arts can play a unique and crucial role in the building of peaceful and just societies with the power to transform relationships heal wounds and nurture compassion and empathy Peacebuilding and the Arts is a vital and unique resource which will stimulate critical discussion and further research but it will also help to refine and reframe our understanding of peacebuilding While it will undoubtedly become mandatory reading for students of peacebuilding and the arts its original approach and dynamic exploratory style should attract a much wider interdisciplinary audience Professor Anna King Professor of Religious Studies and Social Anthropology and Director of Research Centre of Religion Reconciliation and Peace WCRP University of Winchester UK This volume explores the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Through a series of original essays authors consider some of the ways that different art forms including film theatre music literature dance and other forms of visual art can contribute to the processes and practices of building peace This book breaks new ground by setting out fresh ways of analysing the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Divided into five sections on the Visual Arts Music Literature Film and Theatre Dance over 20 authors offer conceptual overviews of each art form as well as new case studies from around the globe and critical reflections on how the arts can contribute to peacebuilding As interest in the topic increases no other book approaches this complex relationship in the way that Peacebuilding and the Arts does By bringing together the insights of scholars and practitioners working at the intersection of the arts and peacebuilding this book develops a series of unique critical perspectives on the interaction of diverse art forms with a range of peacebuilding endeavours

The European Union's Brand of Peacebuilding
Birgit Poopuu, 2019-08-02 Conceptually and empirically this is the most thoughtful analysis of the role of EU's peace missions I have read so far It starts with the action for the sake of action logic of CSDP development and offers a new interpretation of what CSDP could be if just peace was part of its political agenda A rare gem in European studies Xymena Kurowska

Associate Professor of International Relations at Central European University Hungary This impressive research monograph provides a critical account of EUs peace missions by asking what these missions offer how peace is built and whom these missions serve To address these important questions Birgit Poopuu develops and employs an original and sophisticated discursive framework of telling and acting to conduct an in depth investigation of EU peace missions Artemis in the DRC EUFOR Althea in Bosnia Herzegovina and EULEX in Kosovo This book s ground breaking exploration advances the study of the EU as a peacebuilder Annika Bj rkdahl Professor of Political Science Lund University Sweden and Editor in Chief of Cooperation and Conflict This book critically explores the European Union s brand of peacebuilding in the form of its Common Security and Defence Policy CSDP A contextually close reading of EU missions using the fluid categories of telling and acting stressing the dialogical ways of being and taking heed of the concept of just peace as a particular guide to building peace allows the book to tap into the specific meanings the EU has of peace the ways in which it imagines its relationships with its varied partners and perhaps most controversially the way that being becoming a global actor has been front and center of the CSDP The analysis focuses on three core missions in the Democratic Republic of the Congo Bosnia Herzegovina and Kosovo One of the recurring themes that emerges from the empirical chapters is the significance attached to acting and that acting per se constitutes success of a mission without much thought given to its substance or the outcome of the EU s engagement The imaginative force of this book rests on developing a set of context sensitive analytical tools encapsulated in the dialogical model of identity formation and the dynamic approach to analysing identity through telling and acting

International Intervention in a Secular Age Audra Mitchell, 2014-04-03 International intervention is not just about saving human lives it is also an attempt to secure humanity s place in the universe This book explores the Western secular beliefs that underpin contemporary practices of intervention most importantly beliefs about life death and the dominance of humanity These beliefs shape a wide range of practices the idea that human beings should intervene when human lives are at stake analyses of violence and harm practices of intervention and peace building and logics of killing and letting die Ironically however the Western secular desire to ensure the meaningfulness of human life at all costs contributes to processes of dehumanization undercutting the basic goals of intervention To explore this paradox International Intervention in a Secular Age engages with examples from around the world and draws on interdisciplinary sources anthropologies of secularity and IR posthumanist political philosophy ontology and the sociology of death This book offers new insight into perennial problems such as the reluctance of intervenors to incur fatalities and international inaction in the face of escalating violence It also exposes new dilemmas such as the dehumanizing effects of quantifying casualties Western secular logics of killing and the appropriation of lives and deaths through peace building processes It will be of great interest to students and scholars of international relations political philosophy international ethics and social anthropology
