Sensitivity Analysis Macroeconomic Variables Returns:

An Introduction to Computational Macroeconomics Anelí Bongers, Trinidad Gómez, José L. Torres, 2020-09-01 This book presents an introduction to computational macroeconomics using a new approach to the study of dynamic macroeconomic models. It solves a variety of models in discrete time numerically using a Microsoft Excel spreadsheet as a computer tool. The solved models include dynamic macroeconomic models with rational expectations both non microfounded and microfounded constituting a novel approach that facilitates the learning and use of dynamic general equilibrium models which have now become the principal tool for macroeconomic analysis. Spreadsheets are widely known and relatively easy to use meaning that the computer skills needed to work with dynamic general equilibrium models are affordable for undergraduate students in Advanced Macroeconomics courses.

Sensitivity Analysis of Macroeconomic Variables and Stock Returns Nisha Nabila, 2015-12-03 The impact of macroeconomic variables on stock returns has been the subject of increased theoretical and empirical investigation in literature. This book aims to complement the literature by extending this presumed relationship between stock returns and a set of pre determined domestic and global macroeconomic variables to the emerging stock markets of Bangladesh and India. Evidence for this relationship is drawn in this study through the research methods of Vector Autoregression and by applying empirical tests like Johansen cointegration and Vector Error Correction Models. Empirical findings of this research will provide further insights into understanding the underlying macroeconomic factors that can significantly impact the stock returns of selected stock markets of both Bangladesh and India. This study can also assist various academicians, researchers, policy makers and particularly the governments of these two developing countries to consider the influence of macroeconomic factors when regulating their stock markets, its returns and its policies.

Uncertainty and Challenges in Contemporary Economic Behaviour Ercan Özen, Simon Grima, 2020-09-25 Every day presents new challenges as the face of global economics changes. In this first book in the Emerald Studies in Finance Insurance and Risk Management expert editors and contributors come together to discuss global response to new uncertainty and challenges.

Capital Flows and Crises Barry J. Eichengreen, 2004 An analysis of the connections between capital flows and financial crises as well as between capital flows and economic growth.

Liberia International Monetary Fund. African Dept., 2012-12-21 The 2012 Article IV Consultation with Liberia discusses the economic developments and policies of the country. Liberia recorded strong macroeconomic performance under the three year Extended Credit Facility (ECF) Arrangement but poverty continued to be pervasive. The short to medium term outlook has remained favorable although subject to considerable risks. Following resumption of iron ore exports in 2011, real GDP growth is estimated at 9 percent in 2012 supported by strong growth in the mining sector and expansionary fiscal policy for infrastructure investment. IMF staff supports the authorities request for a successor arrangement under the ECF.

Kenya International Monetary Fund. Fiscal Affairs Dept., 2020-01-15 This Fiscal Transparency Evaluation (FTE) assesses the quality of fiscal reporting in Kenya against the principles set out in the Fiscal Transparency Code Kenya has experienced a lot of structural and economic changes since 2014 One of the key objectives of this FTE is to estimate Kenya's balance sheet and to cover as many as possible of the entities in the public sector The coverage of Kenya's reporting of fiscal statistics has improved considerably The report discusses that Kenya continues to perform well in the overall transparency of its fiscal forecasting and budgeting practices Pillar II of the Code which is based on a strong legal framework It does so against a backdrop of significant ongoing reforms including far reaching fiscal devolution to counties and the introduction of performance based budgeting A recent important change in the law is expected to synchronize the submission and approval of the government's spending proposals and the tax measures in the Finance Bill The recommendations set out under each of the pillars of this report aim to address several challenges The report also encourages the authorities to continue with the implementation of the recommendations set out in the 2014 report on which good or satisfactory progress has been made in about half the cases

Real Estate Appraisal

Sarah Sayce, Judy Smith, Richard Cooper, Piers Venmore-Rowland, 2009-02-11 The education of the real estate professional is changing and aligning itself more closely with the world of business This book takes a new approach to property appraisal by exploring the pricing mechanism in this changing context It develops the notion of the pricing mechanism in relation to property covers practical issues of comparison and the real problems in applying valuation theory explores calculations including social and environmental worth ignored in other texts As real estate professionals now advise both on strategic and operational aspects of built assets they must take into account practices of other investment markets and see investors as competitors to owner occupiers Both owner occupiers and investors have to assess accurately how their buildings perform but also be aware of wider sustainability issues and social and environmental responsibilities Real Estate Appraisal from value to worth meets these new demands by examining the latest techniques of the marketplace developing an understanding of both market appraisal and worth and highlighting the emerging role of sustainability as a driver for decision making in real estate Written by a group of highly experienced lecturers and professionals at the cutting edge of investment practice the book has an accessible style and authoritative coverage for both students and practitioners facing changes in established ways of working For supporting material please go to www.blackwellpublishing.com/sayce
