communities improve higher education institutions and educate the next generation of citizens scholars and leaders

Applications of Service Learning in Higher Education Watson, Sandy White, 2024-03-22 In higher education a pressing issue has emerged how to authentically connect academic pursuits with real world challenges The last decade has witnessed an escalating call for heightened interaction between universities and the real world Demands have grown for higher education institutions to instill democratic citizenship and address students moral development In response to this rise in demand there has been a notable shift toward emphasizing service learning within academia As educators grapple with the imperative to seamlessly integrate theory and practice Applications of Service Learning in Higher Education steps into the forefront delving into the myriad applications of service learning to effectively address this critical issue Applications of Service Learning in Higher Education examines the complexities surrounding service learning in higher education At its core the book aims to showcase concrete examples of successful service learning applications acting as a catalyst for the integration of this transformative pedagogy into the academic fabric Beyond the surface the book delves into the intricate planning execution and assessment stages of service learning projects whether manifested within local communities or on an international scale It seeks to fill notable knowledge gaps particularly in less explored regions like Latin America and the Caribbean and underscores the significance of multidisciplinary experiences As the narrative unfolds the book addresses the symbiotic relationship between service learning and students programs of study transforming communities into vibrant classrooms where learning transcends traditional boundaries

Co-Constructing and Sustaining Service Learning in Graduate Programs: Reflections from the Field Hos, Rabia, Santos, Brenda, 2023-08-18 Ensuring doctoral students receive a well rounded and thorough education is critical for their future success Service learning within the doctoral program is one of the many aspects that helps shape students experiences and prepares them for life after graduation Co Constructing and Sustaining Service Learning in Graduate Programs Reflections from the Field captures the experiences of doctoral students who were involved in socially just and sustainable service learning projects and what it meant for them to be engaged in scholarship through service learning The book also illustrates what service learning looks like and should look like in higher education particularly given the inequities that exist in the field of education Covering key topics such as online education academic identity and sustainable learning this reference work is ideal for administrators policymakers researchers scholars practitioners instructors and students Faculty Service-Learning Guidebook Christine M. Cress, Stephanie T. Stokamer, Thomas J. Van Cleave, Joyce P. Kaufman, 2023-07-03 This is a practical guide to designing teaching and coordinating service learning courses and for developing reciprocal community partnerships and community based research through a lens of equity that addresses the endemic racial social economic and environmental disparities across society The text provides a comprehensive framework for developing both in person and on line service learning with a chapter on virtual delivery of courses that integrates the principles and practices described throughout the book The authors uniquely integrate the how to of conducting service learning with the theoretical foundations to enact effective equitable and inclusive community engagement Given this moment of enormous social inequality and divisiveness the authors offer a new definition and set of educational principles that they characterize as Equity Centered Community Engagement Excellence These principles serve to guide academic and community engagement that is democratic recognizes the voice and expertise of community partners addresses the power imbalances between communities and academic institutions and develops an educational experience that is potentially transformative and promotes civic responsibility Informed by the literature of critical service learning critical race theory intercultural communication theory and social constructivism this book attempts to deconstruct the assumption of the preeminence of academic knowledge to reconstruct a new operational paradigm of equity centeredness that validates community capacity to guide faculty in their redesign of service learning curriculum activities collaborations and scholarship It is based on the principles of Student Agency demonstrated as enhanced skills knowledge and motivation Community Efficacy recognition of community assets and capacity building Scholarly Advocacy leveraging evidence based research based for equity centered learning serving and social justice The authors offer examples of syllabi lessons and assignments reflection questions evaluation rubrics as well as an array of teaching tips that illustrate strategies for use in the classroom and in the field The book is addressed to faculty embarking on service learning and to seasoned scholar practitioners looking for innovative ideas as well as to campus administrators who coordinate community outreach or college student volunteer services offering guidance on leveraging resources and fiscal support from external stakeholders It is also designed to serve as a resource for professional development workshops and faculty scholar learning communities It offers a rich compendium of ideas and examples from which faculty and practitioners can select exercises and elements to incorporate or adapt for their courses whether designing short term engagements or extended service learning programs

Civic Pedagogies: Teaching Civic Engagement in an Era of Divisive Politics Lauren C. Bell, Allison Rank, Carah Ong Whaley, 2024 This book comes at a crucial time as the USA and countries around the world wrestle with an ongoing period of democratic backsliding that shows little sign of abating Alarming study after study shows that younger people are not convinced that democracy will endure and that a sizable number are no longer convinced that it should Especially as changing educational and political landscapes make efforts to educate for democracy both more necessary and more fraught contributors to this book offer innovative pedagogies and praxis grounded in political and civic theories aimed at strengthening democratic norms practices and institutions

The Cambridge Handbook of Service Learning and Community Engagement Corey Dolgon, Tania D. Mitchell, Timothy K. Eatman, 2017-02-01 With contributions from leading experts across disciplinary fields this book explores best practices from the field's most notable researchers as well as important historically based and politically focused challenges to a field whose impact has reached an important crossroads The comprehensive and powerfully critical analysis considers the history of community engagement and service learning best teaching practices and pedagogies engagement across disciplines and current research and policies and contemplates the future of the field The book will not only inform faculty staff and students on ways to improve their work but also suggest a bigger social and political focus for programs intended to seriously establish democracy and social justice in their communities and campuses
