Imagining LatinX Intimacies Edward A. Chamberlain, 2020-08-07 Imagining Latinx Intimacies addresses the ways that artists and writers resist the social forces of colonialism displacement and oppression through crafting incisive and inspiring responses to the problems that queer Latinx peoples encounter in both daily lives and representation such as art film poetry popular culture and stories Instead of keeping quiet queer Latinx artists and writers have spoken up as a way of challenging stereotypes prejudice and violence occurring in communities ranging from Puerto Rico to sites within the mainland United States as well as transnational flows of migration Such migrations are explored in several ways including the movement of queer people from Chile to the United States To address these matters artistic thinkers such as Gloria Anzaldúa Frances Negrón Muntaner and Rane Arroyo have challenged such socio political problems by imagining intimate social and intellectual spaces that resist the status quo like homophobic norms laws and policies that hurt families and communities Building on the intellectual thought of researchers such as Jorge Duany Adriana de Souza e Silva and Jos Esteban Muñoz this book explains how the imagined spaces of Latinx LGBTQ peoples are blueprints for addressing our tumultuous present and creating a better future

In a Queer Time and Place Judith Halberstam, 2005 The first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music In her first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity Judith Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space She presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small town Nebraska After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar winning film based on Brandon's story Boys Don't Cry Halberstam turns her attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves She examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano Jenny Saville Eva Hesse Shirin Neshat and others She then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place
