Things That Matter William Emilsen, Patricia Curthoys, 2025-04-25 Often theological colleges are the site of tension between the aspirations of the overall institution of the church and the goals of the particular college itself While they are usually the first called upon to solve the numerous problems facing the modern church yet just as likely they are criticized for being too academic too out of touch with contemporary society and too expensive A fair reading of the ten essays in Things That Matter will refute or at the very least question these criticisms The authors of this inspiring collection although far from uncritical clearly show that since 1999 when United Theological College the Uniting Church's premier college in New South Wales became part of Charles Sturt University's School of Theology there have been great benefits for students faculty the church and the broader community

The Liturgy of Creation Michael LeFebvre, 2019-08-06 How were holidays chosen and taught in biblical Israel and what did they have to do with the creation narrative Michael LeFebvre considers the calendars of the Pentateuch arguing that dates were added to Old Testament narratives not as journalistic details but to teach sacred rhythms of labor and worship LeFebvre then applies this insight to the creation week finding that the days of creation also serve a liturgical purpose

Preaching on Social Suffering Jeremy Kangsan Kim, 2023-03-01 In this book Jeremy Kim criticizes current Korean and Asian American homiletical strategies for their lack of a theological point of view on social suffering He argues that preachers must develop an alternative theological homiletical viewpoint on social suffering one that has pastoral and prophetic approaches These two approaches offer people a refuge and a voice not only in the church community but also in the larger social community Thus the author suggests that preachers adopt the biblical lament highlighting its dual tasks of compassion the pastoral dimension and resistance the prophetic dimension The author who is a non Western Asian American preacher also incorporates East Asian philosophical and hermeneutical research on ren a positive element of Confucianism into his argument He applies this core concept of Confucianism to the preacher s homiletical strategy toward social suffering Thus the author proposes that Korean preachers should recover ren which contains sincere compassion for others as well as a voice of resistance that reveals unjust social structures as the cause of social suffering and expresses both within Uri we the community

The Lord's Work Tim Grass, 2017-10-20 The Catholic Apostolic Church combined liturgical worship charismatic experience ecumenical vision and eschatological expectation Philip Schaff commented that the claims made for its apostles if true commanded every Christian s attention Historians and liturgists alike have been fascinated by the Church but deterred from researching it because of the notorious difficulty of access to material This account of the church s growth and decline draws on archival sources from several countries many not hitherto used for research and publications in German as well as English Previous accounts in English have focused on the Church in the English speaking world but this book breaks fresh ground by covering the Church s development in every country where it was active Surveying Catholic Apostolic history polity and ministry it seeks to tell the story rather than using the Church as a test case for a preconceived hypothesis In so doing it opens up a range of lines of inquiry for future researchers
