Value in a Changing Built Environment David Lorenz, Peter Dent, Tom Kauko, 2017-12-26 A new framework for understanding the underpinnings of real estate property value and the role it plays in the larger economy Value in a Changing Built Environment examines the professional foundations on which the valuation exercise and the valuation profession rest Written by noted experts in the field the book addresses the often limited understanding of the concept of property value by explaining the intrinsic linkages between economic environmental social and cultural measures and components of property value The book offers a framework that paves the way towards a more holistic approach to property value Value in a Changing Built Environment unwraps many of the traditional assumptions that have underpinned market participants decision making over the last few decades The authors explore the concept that a blindfold application of valuation theories and approaches adopted from finance is unlikely to be able to cope with the nature of property as an economic and public good This vital resource Explains the criteria for making estimates of value that can be applied worldwide Offers an integrated approach to property value and the valuation processes Captures the often illusive intangibles such as environmental performance into valuation Addresses a market failure to account for wider criteria on building performance Value in a Changing Built Environment examines how real estate valuation plays a pivotal role in decision making and how can a new body of knowledge improve the practice in both business and social domains

Property, Planning and Protest: The Contentious Politics of Housing Supply Quintin Bradley,2023-03-17 The struggle for the right to housing is a battle over property rights and land use For housing to be provided as a human need land must be recognised as a common right Property Planning and Protest is a compelling new investigation into public opposition to housing and real estate development Its innovative materialist approach is grounded in the political economy of land value and it recognises the conflict between communities and real estate capital as a struggle over land and property rights Property Planning and Protest is about a social movement struggling for democratic representation in land use decisions The amenity groups it describes champion a democratic plan led system that allocates land for social and environmental goals Situating this movement in a history of land reform and common rights this book sets out a persuasive new vision of democratic planning and affordable housing for all

The Routledge Companion to Accounting History

John Richard Edwards,Stephen Walker,2020-04-15 The Routledge Companion to Accounting History presents a single volume synthesis of research in this expanding field exploring and analysing accounting from ancient civilisations to the modern day No longer perceived as the narrow study of how a mysterious technique was used in past the scope of accounting history has widened substantially This revised and updated volume moves beyond the history of accounting technologies accounting theories and practices and the accountants who applied them Expert contributors from around the world explore the interfaces between accounting and the economy society culture and the polity Accounting history is shown to offer important insights into such disparate phenomena as the evolution of capitalism control of labour gender and family relationships racial exploitation the operation of religious organisations and the functioning of the state Illuminating the foundation and development of accounting systems this updated classic book opens the field to a new generation of accounting scholars and historians around the world

Beyond Elder Law Israel Doron,Ann M. Soden,2012-03-30 All over the world there is a growing interest in the relationship between law and aging How does the law influence the lives of older people Can rights advocacy and representation advance the social position of the aged and combat ageism What are the new and cutting edge frontiers in the field of elder law Should there be a new international human rights convention in this field These are only a few of the many questions that arise This book attempts to answer some of these questions and to set the agenda for the future development of elder law across the globe Taking into account existing research and knowledge leading scholars from different continents North America Europe Asia and Australia present in this book original and novel ideas regarding the future development of elder law These ideas touch upon key topics such as elder guardianship citizenship mental capacity elder abuse human rights and international law family relationships age discrimination and the right to die This book can thus serve as an important reference work for all those interested in understanding where law and aging are headed and for those concerned about the future legal rights of older persons
