Projecting Politics Terry Christensen, Peter J. Haas, 2005 This work examines the relationship between American politics and films from Birth of a Nation to Fahrenheit 9 11 It provides a decade by decade survey as well as a framework to analyse the political content of films

Projecting Politics Terry Christensen, Peter J. Haas, 2015 This fascinating work examines in detail the relationship between American politics and films from Birth of a Nation to Fahrenheit 9 11 It provides a decade by decade survey of politics and films of all types comedies and dramas to biographies and documentaries as well as a helpful framework that students and general readers can use to analyze the political content of films The book also features an examination of film techniques as they relate to political films an exploration of the effects of real world politics on Hollywood and a practical guide to writing film analysis as well as

Projecting Politics Elizabeth Haas, Terry Christensen, Peter J. Haas, 2015-04-10 The new edition of this influential work updates and expands the scope of the original including more sustained analyses of individual films from The Birth of a Nation to The Wolf of Wall Street An interdisciplinary exploration of the relationship between American politics and popular films of all kinds including comedy science fiction melodrama and action adventure Projecting Politics offers original approaches to determining the political contours of films and to connecting cinematic language to political messaging A new chapter covering 2000 to 2013 updates the decade by decade look at the Washington Hollywood nexus with special areas of focus including the post 9 11 increase in political films the rise of political war films and films about the 2008 economic recession The new edition also considers recent developments such as the Citizens United Supreme Court decision the controversy sparked by the film Zero Dark Thirty newer generation actor activists and the effects of shifting industrial financing structures on political content A new chapter addresses the resurgence of the disaster apocalyptic film genre with particular attention paid to its themes of political nostalgia and the turn to global settings and audiences Updated and expanded chapters on nonfiction film and advocacy documentaries the politics of race and African American film and women and gender in political films round out this expansive timely new work A companion website offers two additional appendices and further materials for those using the book in class

The Politics and Sociology of Silent Comedy Films Richard W. Waterman, 2025-05-19 Comedies were among the first films ever made and comedy played a critical and often overlooked role in the early development of cinema This original book holistically examines the political and sociological dimensions of silent comedy films and the motion picture industry at the turn of the 20th century Richard Waterman takes a unique social science approach to the cinematic ecosystem and its development during this era studying the wider context the interconnected social political economic and technological movements and forces that shaped film production distribution and consumption in this pivotal period in the history of film and culture These include moral standards and censorship class racism antisemitism sexism and the global film market Additionally the book analyzes specific films in depth to mine their themes social context and impact Bridging the humanities and social sciences this is a distinctive and valuable contribution to the study of early cinema American Film Satire in the 1990s J. Nilsson, 2013-06-25 This study examines how a particular selection of films turned American cultural material of the 1990s into satirical experiences for viewers and finds that there are elements of resistance to norms and conventions in politics to mainstream news channels and Hollywood and to official American history already embedded in the culture

Here's Looking at You Ernest D. Giglio, 2010 Now in its third edition Here's Looking at You Hollywood Film and Politics examines the tangled relationship between politics and Hollywood which manifests itself in celebrity involvement in political campaigns and elections and in the overt and covert political messages conveyed by Hollywood films The book's findings contradict the film industry's assertion that it is simply in the entertainment business and examines how while the majority of Hollywood films are strictly commercial ventures hundreds of movies ranging from Birth of a Nation to Capitalism do indeed contain political messages This new edition has been updated with new photos and cartoons and includes two new chapters one on Afghan Iraqi war films and the other on the treatment of race and gender in Hollywood films that are sure to stimulate discussion Here's Looking at You serves as a basic text for political film courses and as a supplement in American government and film studies courses and will also appeal to film buffs and people in the film industry

Film Noir Homer B. Pettet, 2014-11-11 Explores the development of film noir as a cultural and artistic phenomenon This book traces the development of what we know as film noir from the proto noir elements of Feuillade's silent French crime series and German Expressionism to the genre's mid twentieth century popularization and influence on contemporary global media By employing experimental lighting effects oblique camera angles distorted compositions and shifting points of view film noir's style both creates and comments upon a morally adumbrated world where the alienating effects of the uncanny the fetishistic and the surreal dominate What drew original audiences to film noir is an immediate recognition of this modern social and psychological reality Much of the appeal of film noir concerns its commentary on social anxieties its cynical view of political and capitalist corruption and its all too brutal depictions of American modernity This book examines the changing often volatile shifts in representations of masculinity and femininity as well as the genre's complex relationship with Afro American culture observable through noir's musical and sonic experiments Key features Traces the history of film noir from its aesthetic antecedents through its mid century popularization to its influence on contemporary global media Discusses the influence of literary and artistic sources on the development of film noir Includes extensive bibliographies filmographies and recommended noir film viewing Concludes with a reflective chapter by Alain Silver and James Ursini on their own influential studies and collections on film noir criticism

Hollywood's Representations of the Sino-Tibetan Conflict J. Daccache, B. Valeriano, 2012-12-05 Using film as a lens through which we can witness the global transformations in politics economy culture and communication this book analyzes Hollywood's shift in its depictions of China and Tibet

Hollywood's Cold War Tony Shaw, 2007-09-19 Hollywood's Cold War American Cinema and Cultural Diplomacy Thomas J. Cobb, 2020-07-25

This book contends that Hollywood films help illuminate the incongruities of various periods in American diplomacy. From the war film Bataan to the Revisionist Western The Wild Bunch, cinema has long reflected US foreign policy's divisiveness both directly and allegorically. Beginning with the 1990s presidential drama The American President and concluding with Joker's allegorical treatment of the Trump era, this book posits that the paradigms for political reflection are shifting in American film from explicit subtexts surrounding US statecraft to covert representations of diplomatic disarray. It further argues that the International Relations theorist Walter Mead's concept of a US polity dominated by contesting beliefs or a kaleidoscope permeates these changing paradigms. This synergy reveals a cultural milieu where foreign policy fissures are increasingly encoded by cinematic representation. The interdisciplinarity of this focus renders this book pertinent reading for scholars and students of American Studies, Film Studies, and International Relations, along with those generally interested in Hollywood filmmakers and foreign policy.
