Literary Studies Deconstructed

Catherine Butler, 2018-05-22 Literary Studies Deconstructed critiques the state of Literary Studies in the modern university and argues for its comprehensive reconstruction It argues that Literary Studies as currently practised avoids engaging with much of literary experience and prioritises instead the needs of critics as a professional community to teach and assess students to demonstrate the creation of knowledge and to meet the demands of governments funders and other bodies The result is that many areas centrally important to lay readers are largely omitted from critical discussion Moreover critical writing and its conventions are framed so as to mask and repress the subject's contradictions This lively and provocative book will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students with an interest in the critical profession or literary theory as well as to Literary Studies academics
