Purpose Directed Theology Getting Our Priorities Right In Evangelical Controversies:

Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2016-04-29 Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination The Atonement Debate Zondervan, 2009-05-26 Recent days have seen a debate among evangelicals over how the death of Christ is to be interpreted When a popular British evangelical leader appeared to denounce the idea that God was punishing Christ in our place on the cross as a twisted version of events morally dubious and a huge barrier to faith that should be rejected in favour of preaching only that God is love major controversy was stirred Many thought the idea of penal substitution was at the heart of the evangelical understanding of the cross if not the only legitimate interpretation of the death of Christ Yet for some time less popular evangelical theologians had been calling this traditional interpretation of the atonement into question So is the traditional evangelical view of penal substitution the biblical explanation of Christ's death or one of many Is it the non negotiable heart of evangelical theology or a time bound explanation that has outlived its usefulness What does the cross say about the character of God the nature of the law and sin the meaning of grace and our approach to missions The public debate which resulted was often heated In order to act as reconcilers the Evangelical Alliance and the London School of Theology called for a symposium in which advocates of the different positions could engage with each other The symposium which was attended by some 200 participants was held when the July 7th bombings took place in London and drew together many of Britain's finest evangelical theologians This book contains the collection of papers given at the symposium supplemented by a few others for the sake of rounding out the agenda and grouped in convenient sections Four Views on the Role of Works at the Final Judgment Robert N. Wilkin, Thomas R. Schreiner, James D. G. Dunn, Michael P. Barber, 2013-07-09 Through a discussion of Biblical texts this book presents four perspectives on the role of works at the final judgment The final judgment is the last and final act before God dwells with his people forever Scripture makes that clear but what function do our actions play in the final assessment of our souls especially those of professing Christians The contributors each state their case for one of four prominent views on the effect of works at the end of time Robert N Wilkin Works will determine rewards but not salvation Thomas R Schreiner Works will provide evidence that one actually has been saved James D G Dunn Works will provide the criterion by which Christ will determine eternal destiny of his people Michael P Barber Works will merit eternal life This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Foundations of Spiritual Formation Paul Pettit, This textbook for introductory spiritual formation courses presents the fundamentals and practices of the discipline This collection includes presentations by several well known evangelical scholars including Gordon Johnston Darrell Bock Richard Averbeck Klaus Issler and others

Into His Presence Timothy L. Anderson, 2019-07-30 A theologically grounded treatment of what it means to be close to God Numerous Christian books aim to provide guidance on relationships with God but few base their conclusions on a biblical theology of intimacy In this volume Tim Anderson develops a biblical and holistic portrait of nearness to God exploring key themes like God s Trinitarian union the fall God s fatherhood marriage imagery suffering and our relationship with the Holy Spirit A concluding chapter examines contemporary Christian songs that address oneness with God and evaluates their theological messages in light of the previous chapters Into His Presence is a helpful guide for pursuing intimacy with God and distinguishing contemporary cultural understandings of close relationships from those communicated in Scripture

Think Christianly Jonathan Morrow, 2011-11-01 Think Christianly is about seizing the opportunities we have every day to speak the life Jesus offers into our culture Tragically many such opportunities pass us by unclaimed either because we don t notice them or we have not prepared ourselves to enter into them And those around us seem to grow increasingly unwilling to hear anything the church has to say Jonathan Morrow helps church leaders envision and implement ways for their congregations to think Christianly about contemporary questions and to speak in informed engaging ways Morrow explores many of the important issues that Christians often hear raised with regard to faith questions about who Jesus was the good and bad of religion pain and evil in the world the reliability of the Bible sexuality and intimate relationships and hope for change among others The life and faith issues that Think Christianly addresses lead to cultural moments where Christianity and contemporary culture intersect This book will help churches take vital steps toward cultivating compassion and competence in speaking faithfully to a questioning world

Conceiving the Christian College Duane Litfin, 2004-09-24 This book is designed to help those who are interested in Christian higher education explore anew the unique features opportunities and contemporary challenges of one distinct type of educational institution the Christian college What distinguishes Conceiving the Christian College from the many other books on this subject is its incisive discussion of a set of crucial ideas widely misunderstood in the world of Christian higher education Now serving in his eleventh year as president of one of the nation s foremost Christian colleges Duane Litfin is well placed to ask pressing questions regarding faith based education What is unique about Christian colleges What is required to sustain them How do they maintain their bearing in the tumultuous intellectual seas of the twenty first century Litfin s themes are large but they are meant to refocus the conceptual challenges to Christian education in ways that will strengthen both the academic environment of today s Christian colleges and their impact on culture at large

Renewing Minds David S. Dockery, 2008 Renewing Minds encourages readers to better serve God the church and society by taking part in or supporting Christian higher education

Heart of an Apostle Pete Beck, Jr., 2007-10-01 After many years of experience with churches I observed that the maturing of the churches in general was being thwarted by the lack of genuine apostolic and five fold ministry The book was written to illustrate the need for genuine apostolic leadership from the heart of maturity Most books about apostolic leadership although good and helpful were more or less written from the point of view of application and performance of ministry rather than from the aspect of heart Key editorial points are Why we need each other The marks of a true apostle and how to recognize them The need for a team spirit Passing the baton to future leaders This book will throw great light on the understanding of those who want to see true oversight work in churches and the blessing it will bring to all concerned

Purpose-Directed Theology Darrell L. Bock, 2009-09-20 When the stakes are high evangelicals don't often engage each other well How should evangelicals grapple with controversial issues What methods and principles should direct theological conversations especially when evangelicals from various backgrounds come together These are the questions Darrell Bock addresses in this important and thoughtful book Setting his discussion somewhere between modernism and postmodernism Bock proposes a way through the philosophical maze He addresses the concern for theological boundaries but also emphasizes the need to take into account the differing purposes for evangelical denominational and interdenominational institutions especially scholarly organizations such as the Evangelical Theological Society Most important Bock recalls the church's scholars to their mandate for cultural engagement He warns against diverting our efforts by putting too much energy into intramural controversies and identifies areas of potential cultural impact now opening up to evangelical scholarship Written by a concerned informed and visionary leader this is a book for all those concerned about evangelical theology scholarship and the church with its missional mandate
