Putting People First Sociological Variables In Rural Development:

Putting People First Michael M. Cernea, 1991 Researching Conflict in Africa Elisabeth J. Porter, 2005 Parts of Africa experience persistent violence and seemingly intractable conflicts These violent conflicts have drawn researchers seeking to determine and explain why conflicts are prevalent what makes them intensify and how conflicts can be resolved This book examines the ethical and practical issues of researching within violent and divided societies It provides fascinating and factual case studies from Angola the Democratic Republic of Congo Ghana Nigeria Rwanda and South Africa The authors provide insights about researching conflict in Africa that can only be gained through fieldwork experience Participatory Development Communication International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1996 Participatory Development Communication A West African agenda Social Development in the World Bank Maritta Koch-Weser, Scott Guggenheim, 2021-04-23 This open access book honors the work of Michael Cernea who was the World Bank's first professional sociologist by taking on and extending his arguments for putting people first Cernea led a community of social scientists in formulating and promoting a comprehensive set of innovative and original social policies on development issues which the World Bank adopted and implemented This book includes globally significant work on urban and rural development the epistemology of using social science knowledge in national and international development methodologies for using social organization for more effective poverty reduction and the experience of crafting social policies to become normative frameworks for purposive collective social action And by including contributions from senior policy makers in the World Bank who helped shepherd social science's entry into development policy and practice it provides a unique look at how organizational change can happen Sociology, Anthropology, and Development Michael M. Cernea, April L. Adams, 1994-01-01 Environmentally Sustainable Development Studies and Monograph Series No 3 A listing of works published by World Bank sociologists and anthropologists this bibliography serves as a vehicle for exchanging experiences and promoting interdisciplinary Methods For Social Analysis In Developing Countries Kurt Finsterbusch, 2019-04-05 This book fills the gap between social science methodology books and the realities of conducting social research under Third World conditions It focuses on social impact assessment methods and cost effective social analyses for development projects and programs in US and Third World countries Culture and Public Action Vijayendra Rao, Michael Walton, 2004 Led by Amartya Sen Mary Douglas and Arjun Appadurai the distinguished anthropologists and economists in this book forcefully argue that culture is central to development and present a framework for incorporating culture into development discourse For further information on the book and related essays please visit www.cultureandpublicaction.org People and Forest — Policy and Local Reality in Southeast Asia, the Russian Far East, and Japan M. Inoue, H. Isozaki, 2013-11-11 leading to an overall decrease in the world's forest cover The forests of Asia in particular have been strongly impacted A number of initiatives have suggested forest policy reforms and the need for the sustainable management of forests has been widely recognized and encouraged But because implementation of reforms at the local level has been insufficient it is imperative that local people begin to effectively participate in forest planning and management as well as in protected area management The Forest Conservation Project launched in April 1998 by the Institute for Global Environmental Strategies IGES has carried out research activities on forest strategies including policy analysis and on site surveys This book gives an overview of the project s research activities in its first three year phase April 1998 March 2001 Since viable forest strategies work best when based on the involvement of local people this report is addressed to stakeholders in the communities of the relevant countries including local people and authorities community based organizations experts national agencies and international institutions Social, Economic, And Institutional Issues In Third World Irrigation Management R. K. Sampath, Robert A. Young, 2019-09-05 This volume number 15 in the Studies in Water Policy and Management Series and joins two other volumes 8 and 10 that collectively summarize a significant part of the post World War II experience of Western experts and donors with the development and management of irrigation in Third World countries The evolution of understanding of Third World irrigation issues has been toward a greater appreciation of the potential for augmenting traditional production and water allocation systems with improved institutional arrangements for achieving allocative efficiency and equity The need for local inputs for planning system operation and system maintenance is now widely recognized as is the need for providing proper motivation for system administrators The authors of this volume offer improved conceptual frameworks and analytic techniques applied to specific country and regional problems in hopes of edifying future experts and donors Urban Poverty ,1995
