Constructing Social Memory Marta Vignola, Mariano Longo, Stefano Bory, 2025-03-19 This book is about the role of memory in contemporary social sciences and societies The work has two parts In the first experts from different countries address the topic of memory from a theoretical and epistemological perspective e g historical memory biographical memory memory as an act of creation as well as and the narrative dimension of memory In the second part case studies are presented from different countries France Italy Albania Spain Brazil Peru among others referring to the relationship between memories and aspects of social life such as migration conflict gender relations journalism and public opinion culture collective trauma art collaborative archaeology and the use of film materials The book has both a political and a methodological intent It underlines how the circulation of conflicting and unresolved narratives of past events may take multiple forms through a wide range of communicative aesthetic and cultural codes The empirical contributions deal with traumatic silenced stubborn and insurgent memories whose narration is able to have an impact on present and future Thus each chapter is an attempt to give back the right to speak to people and stories often placed on the margins of dominant narratives Constructing Social Memory introduces insights and themes of study that embrace a multiplicity of approaches to memory and makes a wholly original contribution to the topic

Ethical and Political Approaches to Nonhuman Animal Issues Andrew Woodhall, Gabriel Garmendia da Trindade, 2017-08-28 This book offers ethical and political approaches to issues that nonhuman animals face The recent political turn in interspecies ethics from ethical to political approaches has arisen due to the apparent lack of success of the nonhuman animal movement and dissatisfaction with traditional approaches Current works largely present general positions rather than address specific issues and principally rely on mainstream approaches This book offers alternative positions such as cosmopolitan libertarian and left humanist thought as well as applying ethical and political thought to specific issues such as experimentation factory farming nonhuman political agency and intervention Presenting work by theorists and activists insights are offered from both ethics and politics that impact theory and practice and offer essential considerations for those engaging in interspecies ethics within the political turn era

The Penitent State Paul Muldoon, 2023-09-15 This book asks a deceptively simple question what are states actually doing when they do penance for past injustices Why are these penitential gestures especially the gesture of apology becoming so ubiquitous and what implications do they carry for the way power is exercised Drawing on the work of Schmitt Foucault and Agamben the book argues that there is more at stake in sovereign acts of repentance and redress than either the recognition of the victims or the legitimacy of the state Driven it suggests by an interest in healing such acts testify to a new biopolitical raison d tat in which the management of trauma emerges as a critical expression of attempts to regulate the life of the population The Penitent State seeks to show that the key issue created by the age of apology is not whether sovereign acts of repentance and redress are sincere or insincere but whether the political measures licensed in the name of healing deserve to be regarded as either restorative or just Transitional Justice and the Former Soviet Union Cynthia M. Horne, Lavinia

Stan, 2018-02-22 A comprehensive overview of the efforts of state and non state actors in the former Soviet Union to redress the past After Gun Violence Craig Rood, 2019-05-20 Mass shootings have become the new normal in American life The same can be said for the public debate that follows a shooting blame is cast political postures are assumed but no meaningful policy changes are enacted In After Gun Violence Craig Rood argues that this cycle is the result of a communication problem Without advocating for specific policies Rood examines how Americans talk about gun violence and suggests how we might discuss the issues more productively and move beyond our current tragic impasse Exploring the ways advocacy groups community leaders politicians and everyday citizens talk about gun violence Rood reveals how the gun debate is about far more than just guns He details the role of public memory in shaping the discourse showing how memories of the victims of gun violence the Second Amendment and race relations influence how gun policy is discussed In doing so Rood argues that forgetting and misremembering this history leads interest groups and public officials to entrenched positions and political failure and drives the public further apart Timely and innovative After Gun Violence advances our understanding of public discourse in an age of gridlock by illustrating how public deliberation and public memory shape and misshape one another It is a search to understand why public discourse fails and how we can do better
