Pursuing The Pearl A Comprehensive Resource For Multi Asian Ministry:

A Heart for the Community John Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2013-08-28 Our nation used to look at violence poverty and gentrification and assign those problems to urban centers Today these issues concern the suburbs too The Christian community is responding to this reality Churches and parachurch ministries are actively working to transform lives and restore communities throughout the city and suburbs In A Heart for the Community New Models for Urban and Suburban Ministry you will be challenged by a collection of voices seeking community renewal These individuals are involved in creative church planting initiatives and they are serving the growing Hispanic and Muslim populations Additional endeavors include serving racially changing communities economic development strategies and more As anyone who has been in ministry for any length of time can attest tackling some of the most challenging issues of our times is no mere academic exercise The voices within these pages write from experience and offer workable vibrant models of ministry that make a difference

A Faith Of Our Own Sharon Kim, 2010-03-31 Second generation Korean Americans demonstrating an unparalleled entrepreneurial fervor are establishing new churches with a goal of shaping the future of American Christianity A Faith of Our Own investigates the development and growth of these houses of worship a recent and rapidly increasing phenomenon in major cities throughout the United States Immigration historians have depicted the second generation as a transitional generation on the steady march toward the inevitable decline of ethnic identity and allegiance Sharon Kim suggests an alternative path By harnessing religion and innovatively creating hybrid religious institutions second generation Korean Americans are assertively defining and shaping their own ethnic and religious futures Rather than assimilating into mainstream American evangelical churches or inheriting the churches of their immigrant parents second generation pastors are creating their own hybrid third space new autonomous churches that are shaped by multiple frames of reference Including data gathered over ten years at twenty two churches A Faith of Our Own is the most comprehensive study of this topic that addresses generational identity political racial and empowerment issues

Preaching to Second Generation Korean Americans Matthew D. Kim, 2007 This in depth study on preaching to second generation Korean Americans the first of its kind is based on empirical and ethnographic fieldwork Matthew D Kim conducted surveys and semi structured qualitative interviews with Korean American pastors and second generation young adult respondents in three geographic regions of the United States the Midwest the West Coast and the East Coast His primary conceptual framework employs social psychologists Hazel Markus and Paula Nurius theory of possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermonic preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology Asian American Youth Ministry Dj Chuang,2009-05-27 Find practical answers in this handy resource Get an inside look at the practical insights from the perspective of practitioners who collectively have over 100 years of experience in Asian American youth ministry as they share about the intergenerational church student leadership and vital outreach Religions in Asian America Pyong Gap Min,Jung Ha Kim,2001-12-18 The flux of Asian immigration over the last 35 years has deeply altered the United States religious landscape But neither social scientists nor religious scholars have fully appreciated the impact of these growing communities And Asian immigrant religious communities are significant to the study of American religion not only because there are more than ten million Asian Americans Asian American religions differ substantially from models drawn from European religions pushing for new wider understandings Religions in Asian America provides a comprehensive overview of the religious practices of Chinese Filipino Indian Korean Japanese Vietnamese Cambodian and Laotian Americans How these new communities work through issues of gender race transnationalism income disparities and social service and the passing along an ethnic identity to the next generation make up the common themes that reach across essays about the varying communities The first sociological overview of Asian American religions Religions in Asian America is necessary reading for those interested in Asians ethnicity immigration or religion in the United States Solving the Immigrant Church Crisis Ronald M. Rothenberg,2016-08 Solving the Immigrant Church Crisis The Biblical Solution of Parallel Ministry Acts 6 1 7 addresses the crisis of the immigrant church in which complex cultural and linguistic factors create a reticence on the part of immigrants to transfer financial and decision making authority to succeeding generations and this results in a culturally irrelevant ministry to those generations an exodus of believers from the church a spiritually immature remnant and an inability to reach the lost The thesis of this book is that parallel ministry based on Acts 6 1 7 is the biblical solution to the crisis in the immigrant church While there are at least two main aspects of this crisis a spiritual relational and an ecclesiastical aspect this book focuses on the ecclesiastical aspect of defining the biblical structure of church government Specifically this book is for immigrant churches primarily in the United States and offers them a biblical and practical solution to the problem plaguing them for over two centuries of how to minister effectively to the succeeding generations Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim,Daniel L. Wong,2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one s own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach

United by Faith Curtiss Paul DeYoung, Michael O. Emerson, George A. Yancey, 2004 Presents an argument for multiracial Christian congregations in breaking down racial barriers in the United States Crossing the Ethnic Divide Kathleen Garces-Foley, 2007-02-22 While religious communities often stress the universal nature of their beliefs it remains true that people choose to worship alongside those they identify with most easily Multiethnic churches are rare in the United States but as American attitudes toward diversity change so too does the appeal of a church that offers diversity Joining such a community however is uncomfortable worshippers must literally cross the barriers of ethnic difference by entering the religious space of the ethnically other Through the story of one multiethnic congregation in Southern California Kathleen Garces Foley examines what it means to confront the challenges in forming a religious community across ethnic divisions and attracting a more varied membership

Growing Healthy Asian American Churches Peter Cha, S.
