Puzzles About Art An Aesthetics Casebook:

Puzzles About Art; An Aesthetics Casebook Margaret Battin, 1988-11-01 Art Education Albert William Levi, Ralph Alexander Smith, 1991 Recommending that art be taught as a humanity this volume provides a philosophical rationale for the idea of discipline based art education Levi and Smith discuss topics ranging over both the public and private aspects of art the disciplines of artistic creation art history art criticism and aesthetics and curriculum proposals featuring five phases of aesthetic learning While there is no consensus on how the various components of aesthetic learning should be presented in order to accomplish the goals of discipline based art education the authors point out that progress toward those goals will require that those who design art education programs bring an understanding of the four disciplines to their work The introductory volume of a five volume series this book will appeal to elementary and secondary art teachers those who prepare teachers at the college level and museum educators Aesthetics and Education Michael J. Parsons, H. Gene Blocker, 1993 What is the appropriate content of aesthetics for students of art at different age levels How can it best be taught How should it be combined with studio work and other art disciplines Michael J Parsons and H gene Blocker answer these and other questions in a volume designed to help art educators potential educators and curriculum developers integrate aesthetics into the study of art in the school curriculum The two introduce some of the philosophical problems and questions in art encouraging teachers and others to form a personal outlook on these issues Ideas About Art Kathleen K. Desmond, 2011-03-16 Ideas About Art is an intelligent accessible introductory text for students interested in learning how to think about aesthetics It uses stories drawn from the experiences of individuals involved in the arts as a means of exposing readers to the philosophies theories and arguments that shape and drive visual art An accessible story driven introduction to aesthetic theory and philosophy Prompts readers to develop independent ideas about aesthetics this is a guide on how to think not what to think Includes discussions of non western contemporary and discipline specific theories Examines a range of art based dilemmas across a wide variety of disciplines from art and design and law to visual and museum studies The Aesthetics of Comics , Choreomusicology Samuel N. Dorf, Helen Julia Minors, 2025-05-07 Choreomusicology Dialogues in Music and Dance is a distinguished collection of chapters by leading scholars presenting research that redefines and rethinks the question of what dance and music are together and apart and which promotes new ideas and voices in the discipline Focusing on matters historical critical and conceptual and defining dance music interactions from the era of aristocratic court dance to the present the book covers a wide range of topics including dance and music performance practice queer studies colonialism and exoticism disability studies the reparative humanities and film The volume is organized into two sections Part 1 examines theoretical and conceptual issues including theories of embodiment musicality and dance aesthetics with examples including contemporary ballet the role of the conductor and even fountains in Las Vegas In Part 2 contributors consider choreomusicology as a historical discipline and tackle the problem of musical and choreographic reconstruction from medieval dance to reimagining lost music in early experiment in dance film as well as choreomusical analyses of twentieth century works Capturing the breadth of studies and approaches that are encompassed in choreomusicology this book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of dance and media studies musicology and ethnomusicology as well as appealing to dancers choreographers musicians and composers looking for new approaches to thinking about music and dance Handbook of Research and Policy in Art Education Elliot W. Eisner, Michael D.

Day, 2004-04-12 This work provides an overview of the progress that has characterized the field of research and policy in art education It profiles and integrates history policy learning curriculum and instruction assessment and competing perspectives

Introducing Aesthetics David E. Fenner, 2003-09-30 This concise yet comprehensive introduction to the discipline of western aesthetical philosophy is focused directly on the central questions of aesthetics Fenner arranges his analysis around four general themes Experiences Objects and Events Meaning and Judgment that progress from issues of everyday experience to subjects of greater subtlety Within these broader themes Fenner explores such issues as The Aesthetic Attitude Defining Art and Reviewing Art Criticism Although a historical organization is employed wherever a particular movement unfolds from earlier movements the text's main organization is not motivated by an academic or historical treatment of the various topics Instead the topics themselves are of primary concern in such a way that readers will come away with a complete overview of the canon of this highly significant area of western philosophy

Discipline-Based Art Education Kay Alexander, Michael Day, 1991-01-01 This sampler was designed for art specialists and art museum educators with a basic understanding of teaching discipline based art education content The introduction offers a brief history of the Sampler and explains its intended purpose and use Then 8 unit models with differing methodologies for relating art objectives to the four disciplines aesthetics art criticism art history and art production are presented The sampler consists of two elementary units two units for middle school two units intended for required high school art one high school studio ceramic unit and a brief unit for art teachers and art museum educators that focuses on visits to art museums Learning activities resource material and learning strategies are given for the units along with a sequence of lessons organized on a theme

Aesthetics of the Familiar Yuriko Saito, 2017-06-23 Yuriko Saito explores the nature and significance of the aesthetic dimensions of people's everyday life Everyday aesthetics has the recognized value of enriching one's life experiences and sharpening one's attentiveness and sensibility Saito draws out its broader importance for how we make our worlds environmentally morally as citizens and consumers Saito urges that we have a social responsibility to encourage cultivation of aesthetic literacy and vigilance against aesthetic manipulation Yuriko Saito argues that ultimately everyday aesthetics can be an effective instrument for directing the humanity's collective and cumulative world making project for the betterment of all its inhabitants Everyday aesthetics has been seen as a challenge to contemporary Anglo American aesthetics discourse which is dominated by the discussion of art and beauty Saito responds to controversies about the nature boundary and status of everyday aesthetics and argues for its legitimacy She highlights the multi faceted aesthetic dimensions of everyday life that are not fully accounted for by the commonly held account of defamiliarizing the familiar
